SENIORS

The Senior Class Council started the year hosting the first ever Week Zero, an event for all SGA members. The seniors continued the tradition of hosting 'Pancakes and Chill,' where they cooked pancakes for freshman and seniors to enjoy. A special experience for the Senior Class was collecting money to buy shoes for kids at Central Elementary School and then hand-delivering the shoes to students. It was a great way to partner with a local elementary school! Supporting our NNU women's basketball team, the senior class watched the game in style in the Ferdinand Suite with lots of snacks. Before walking across the stage in May, the Senior Class attended Reunion Zero and had a blast!

JUNIORS

The Junior Class Council had a blast this year! They started the year with a rager in the Corlett dorm, Fr/Jr Merger, where the freshman got a glimpse into the upperclassmen dorm life. Homecoming was a memorable event for all students, as the junior class organized the coronation and a lively after-party that featured an abundant amount of food and a photo booth. Ending the year, they planned an incredible retreat for the juniors and seniors up at Trinity Pines in Cascade, Idaho.

SOPHOMORES

The Sophomore Class Council started their year planning the hilarious variety show, “Funky Fresheree.” The creative hosts (The Brick House Boys) carried out all their funky ideas in a night full of laughter. The Sophomore Class Council also hosted many pop-up events for the sophomores, including spreading love and cheer through goodie-bags. Ending the year, they collaborated with both the junior and senior class to throw two last events for each class to enjoy.

FRESHMEN

Just weeks into the school year, the memorable speeches of election chapel kicked off the year for the Freshman Class Council. The Class Council spent the rest of their time learning the ropes of student leadership and planning an incredible Mr. NNU. This year's theme was "NNU the Bachelorette," where two male students from each class were represented in a hilarious night of skits.

BRICK HOUSE

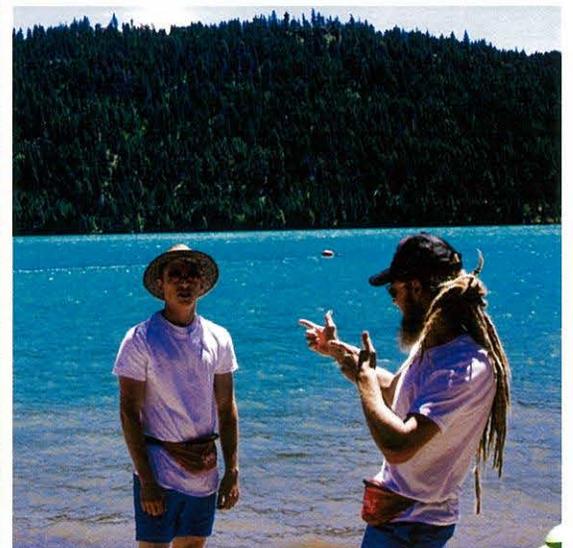

This year the Brick House crew had a motto which stated, "Our Brick House is Your Brick Home". This motto lead them through this year as reservations to hang out at the house filled up every week and events and parties were thrown throughout by the Brick House boys; Micah Tranch, Trent Emerson, Jonathan Shields and Kaleb Harper. These events included the Halloweenie party, the Christmas party, Family Feud Night, the Brick House mini golf course and much more.

COVENANT

Covenant was one of two NNU summer travel groups that served at camps and churches over the summer. Besides leading worship, the members of Covenant served as camp counselors and game leaders. This group enjoyed participating in sports tournaments at camps, connecting with students and building relationships, playing water games, getting messy in shaving cream wars, and adopting a buoy named Dillon.

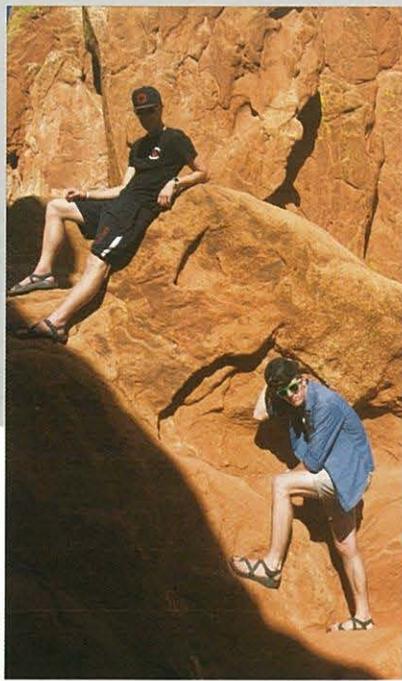

WITNESS

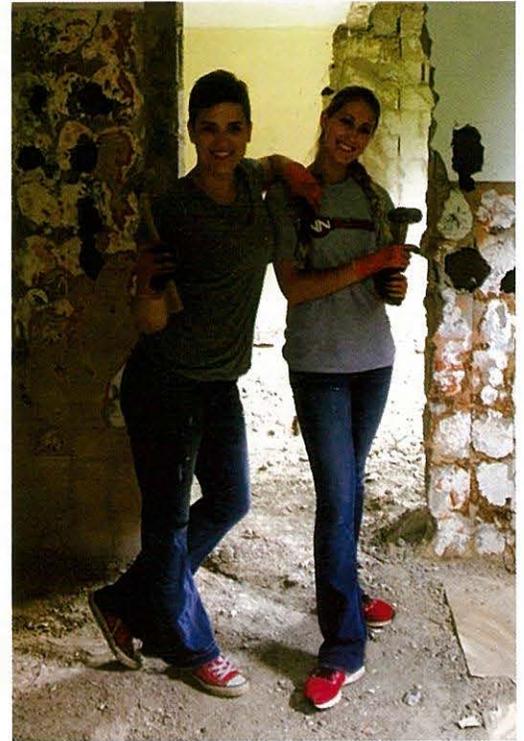

Witness had a blast this summer traveling around to camps and churches all across the region. While going to states like Alaska, Oregon, Washington, Montana, and Colorado, the members of Witness were camp counselors, student mentors, hype people, and overall “yes people!” They were able to hit seven camps, and between crazy skits and messy games, there was never a dull moment with this group!

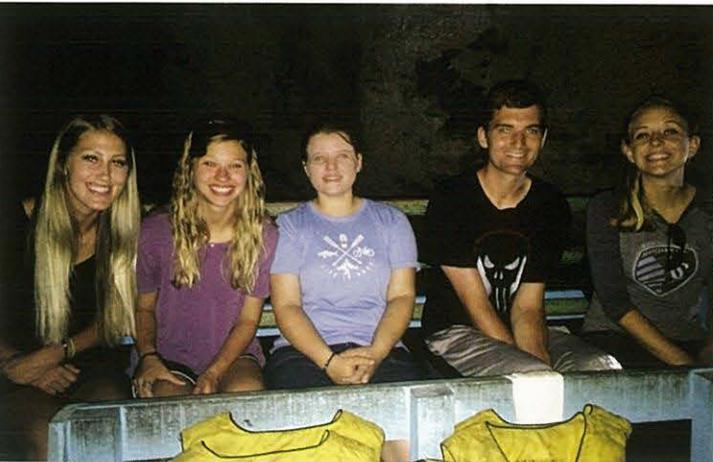

NNU ON A MISSION

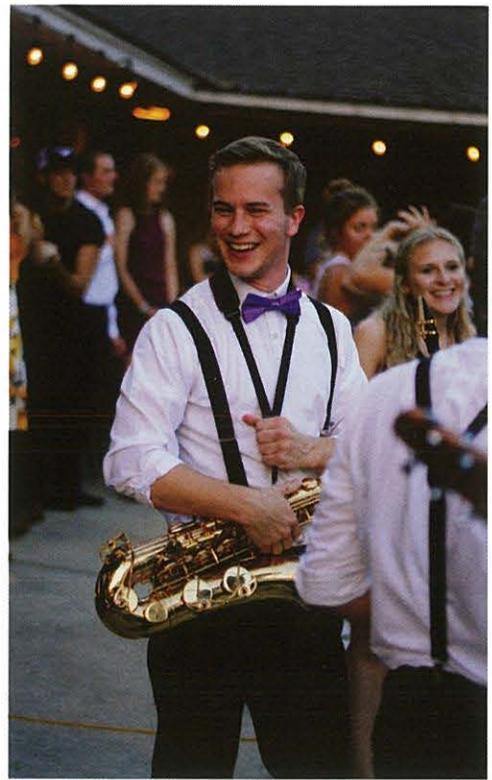

NNU on a Mission is an amazing opportunity for NNU students to serve throughout the world while representing our university. Last summer, students traveled to Kenya, Poland, and the Dominican Republic. Students immersed themselves in the culture and had a once-in-a-lifetime experience furthering God's Kingdom.

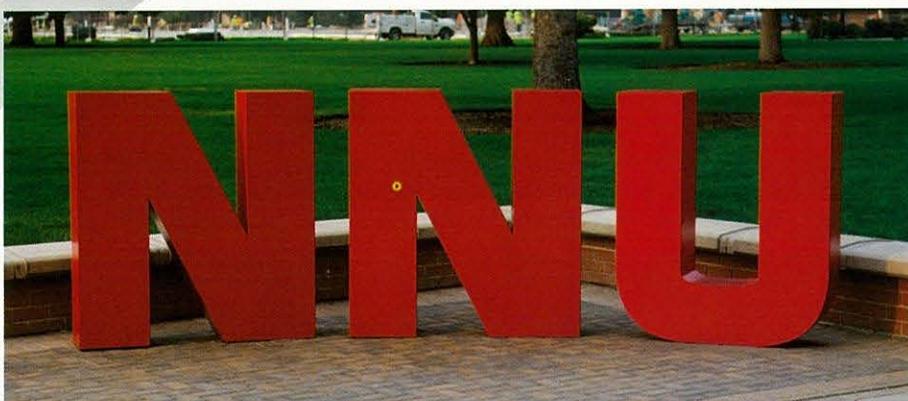

STUDENT LIFE

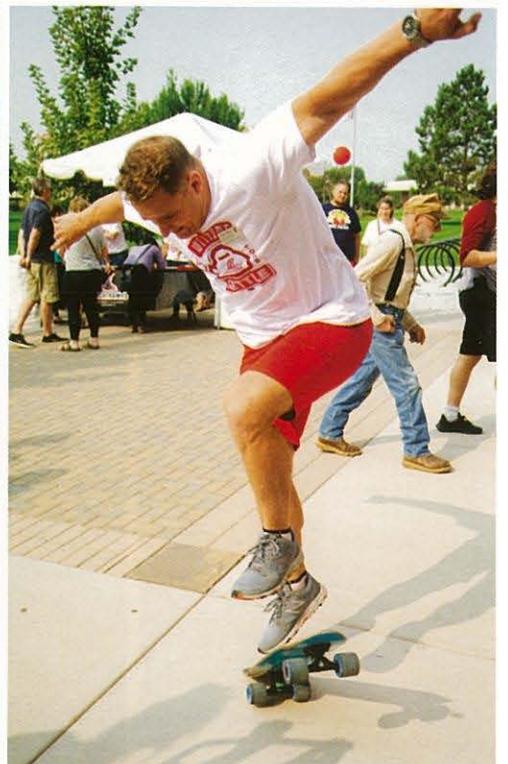

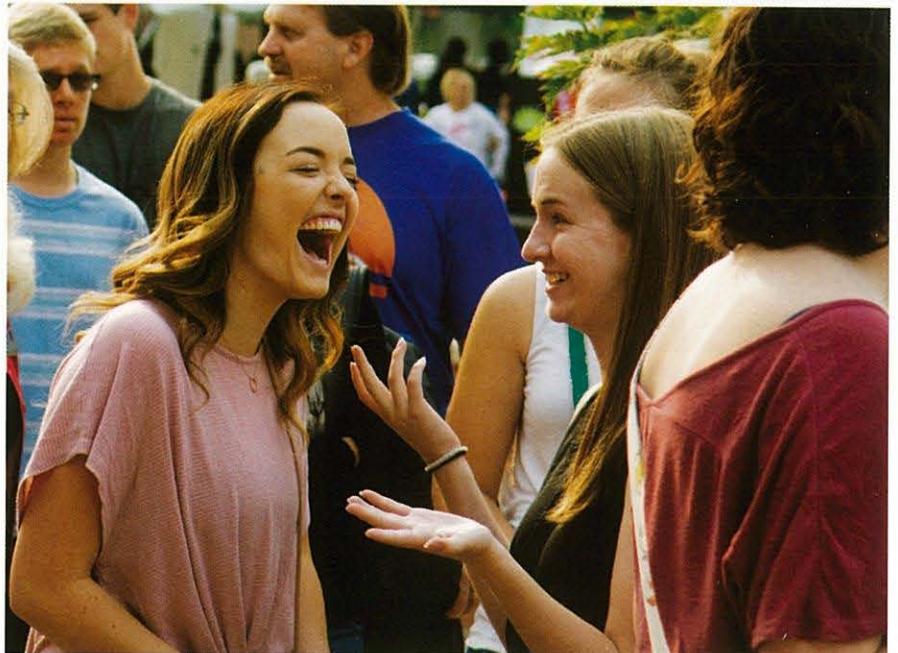

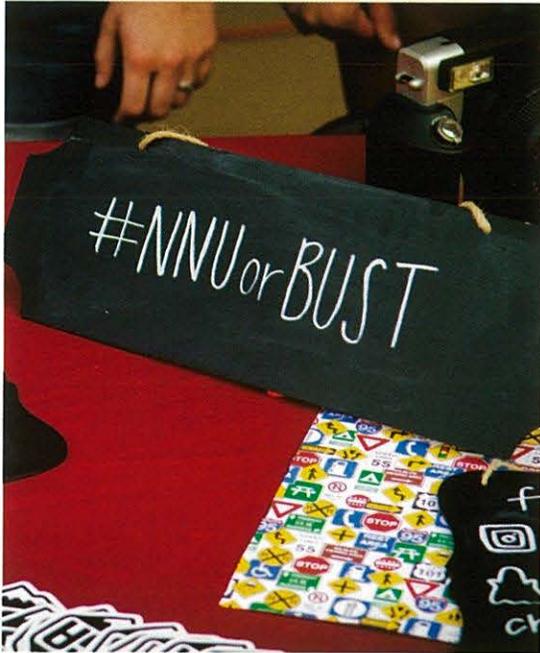

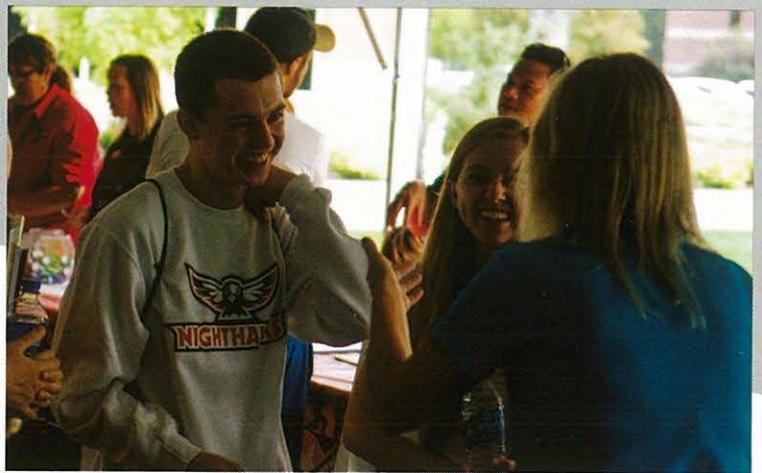

NSU

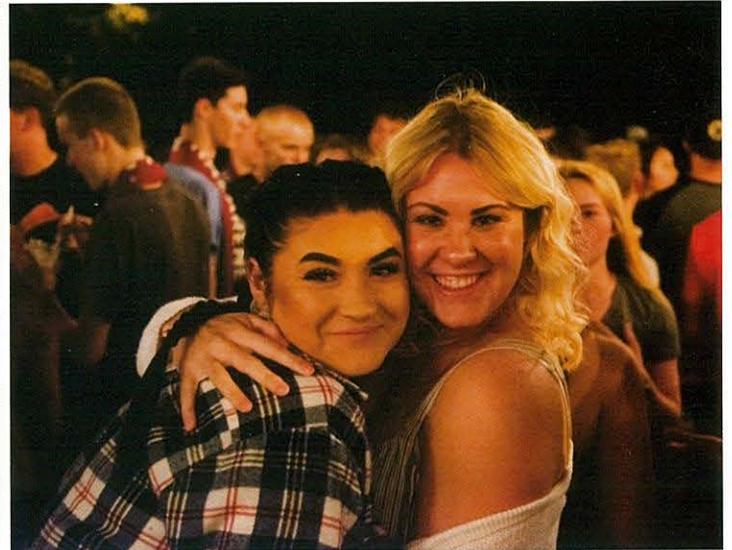

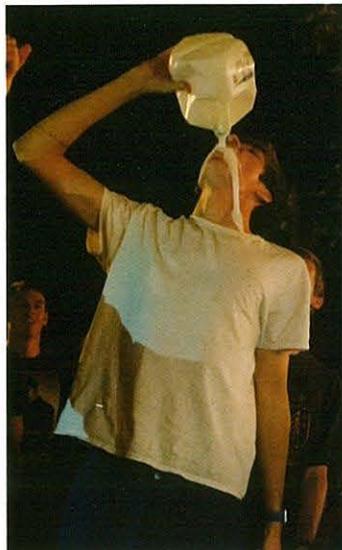

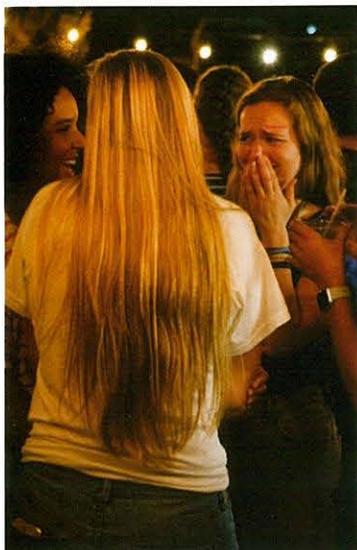

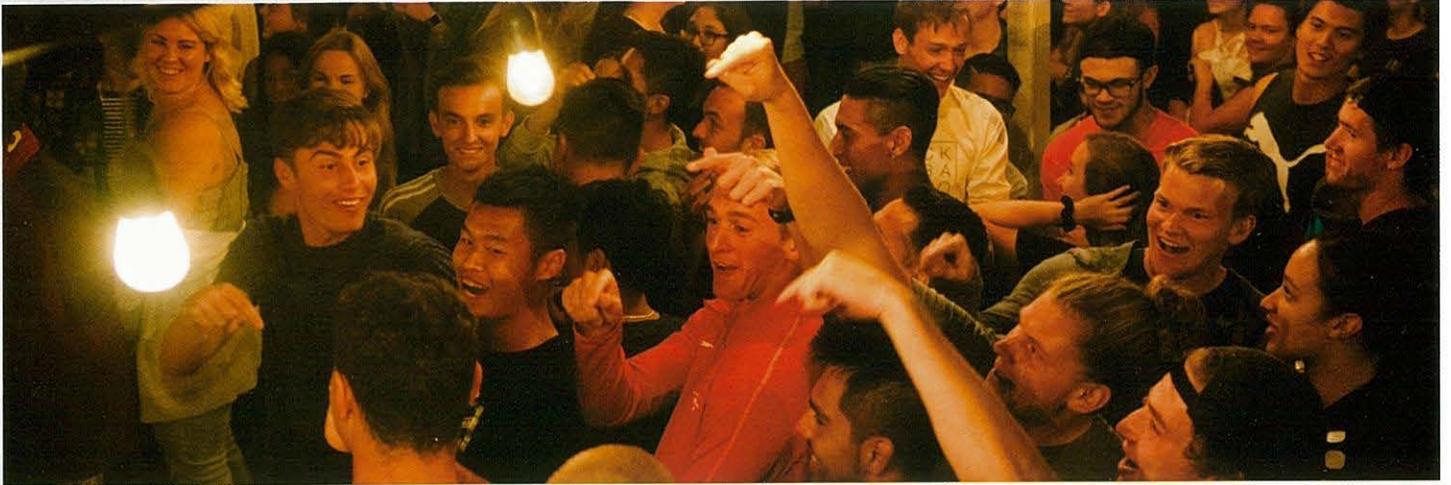

NNU's new student orientation was full of excitement and laughter from all of the new faces on campus. Whether they were greeted by faculty members or given Otter Pops from the brick house team, these new students were quickly welcomed into the NNU community. Thanks to all of the faculty members and student leaders that helped make their welcome one to remember!

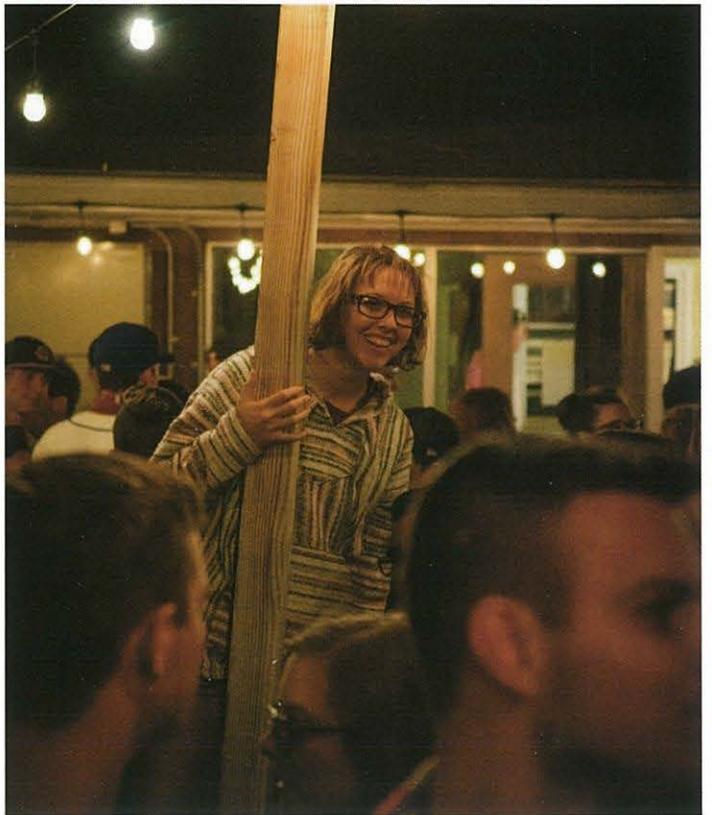

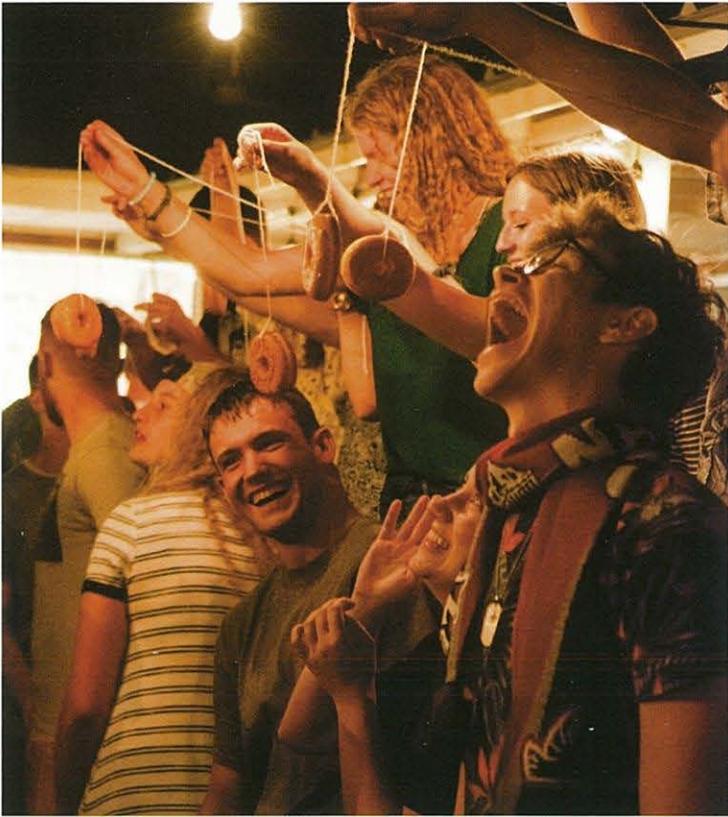

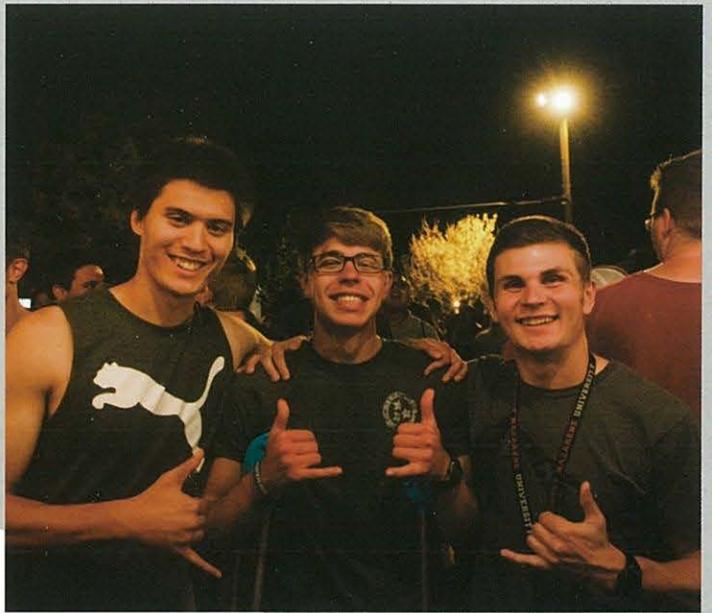

BRICK HOUSE PARTY

The Brick House Party was a great start to week one as new and returning students gathered together for a night full of socializing, lawn games, and special events ran by the Brick House Team. This night was full of new connections, new memories, and of course, new winners to the milk chugging contest and donut eating contest!

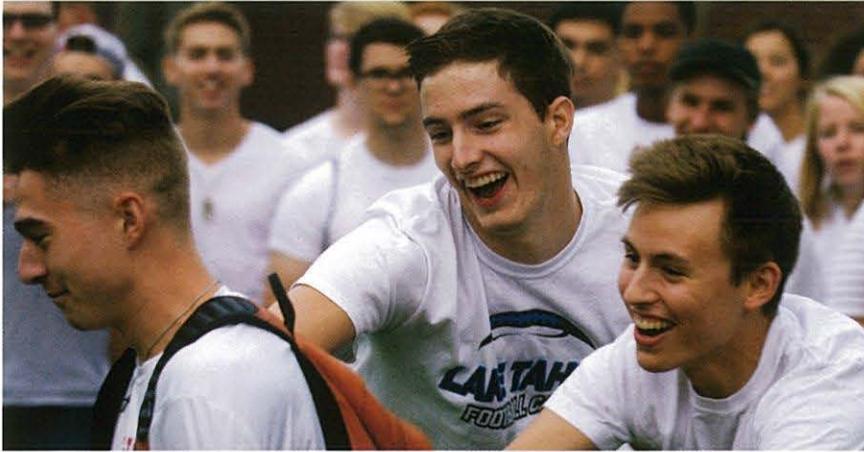

COLOR WAR

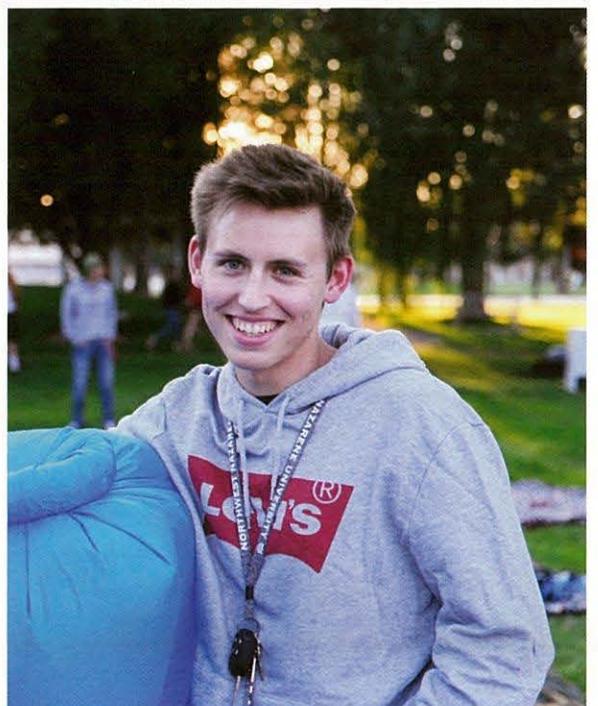

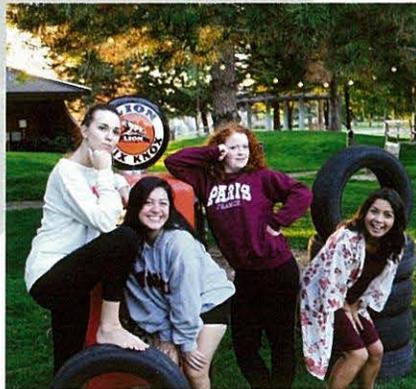

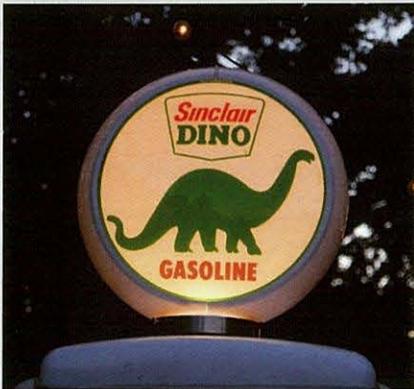

Wearing white clothes, students gathered onto the quad prepared for battle. Divided into four teams, each group huddled around their special colored chalk. The signal was given to start, and everyone ran around throwing their colored chalk on the other teams. By the end, the white shirts were completely engulfed in color and the sun had then set, making way for an epic night of dancing with snacks, loud music, and glow sticks.

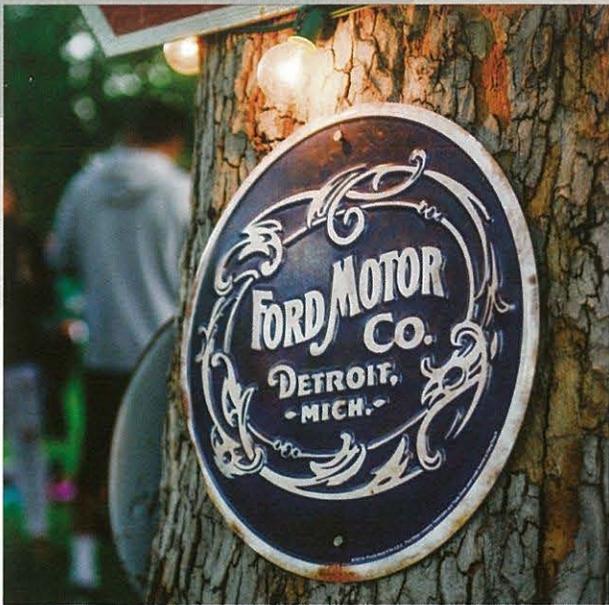

ROOT BEER FEST

At one of the most popular events of the year, everyone gathers at Root Beer Fest to meet new people and reconnect with friends for an outdoor movie night. There is always hype around campus when the big screen pops up on Brandt Lawn. Students start to crave the root beer floats and snacks that are provided and break out their comfiest blankets, beanbag chairs, and pillows to watch the themed movie on the grass.

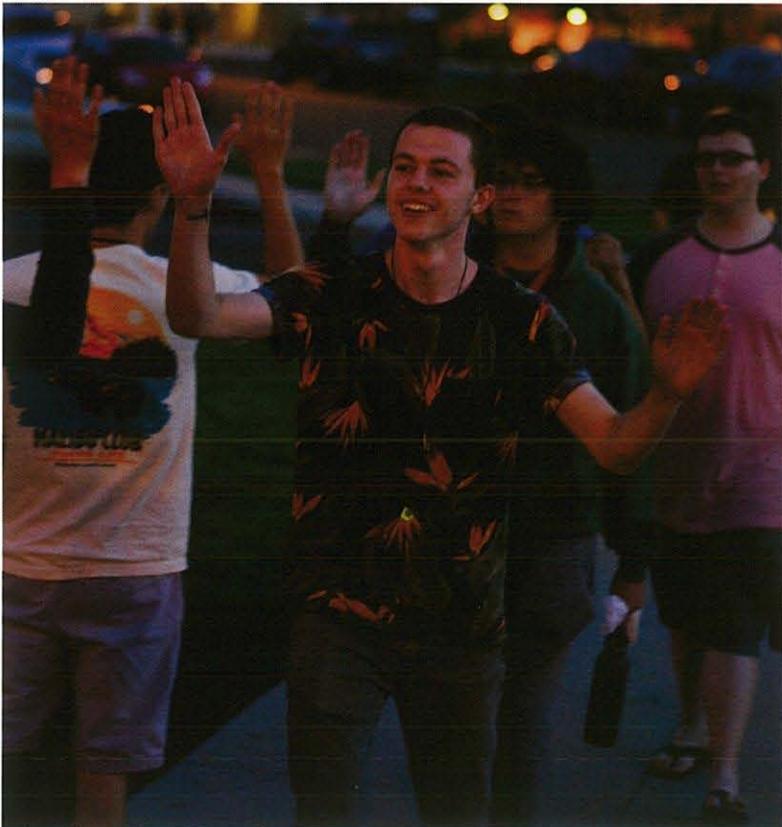

FIRST TIMEOUT

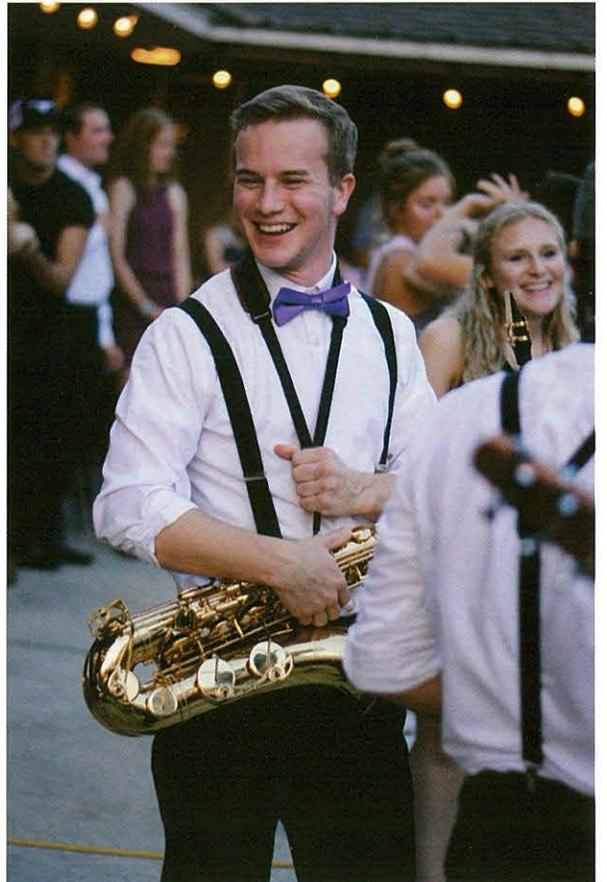

With almost 400 students showing up, the first Timeout was an incredible way to kick off the year. Covenant led worship, and several members of Witness shared their summer experiences. Campus Ministries Coordinator Morgan Fast introduced the year's theme of "Pursue" and challenged students to recognize the ways in which God has been pursuing them throughout their lives, as well as the ways in which students are seeking God in their daily lives.

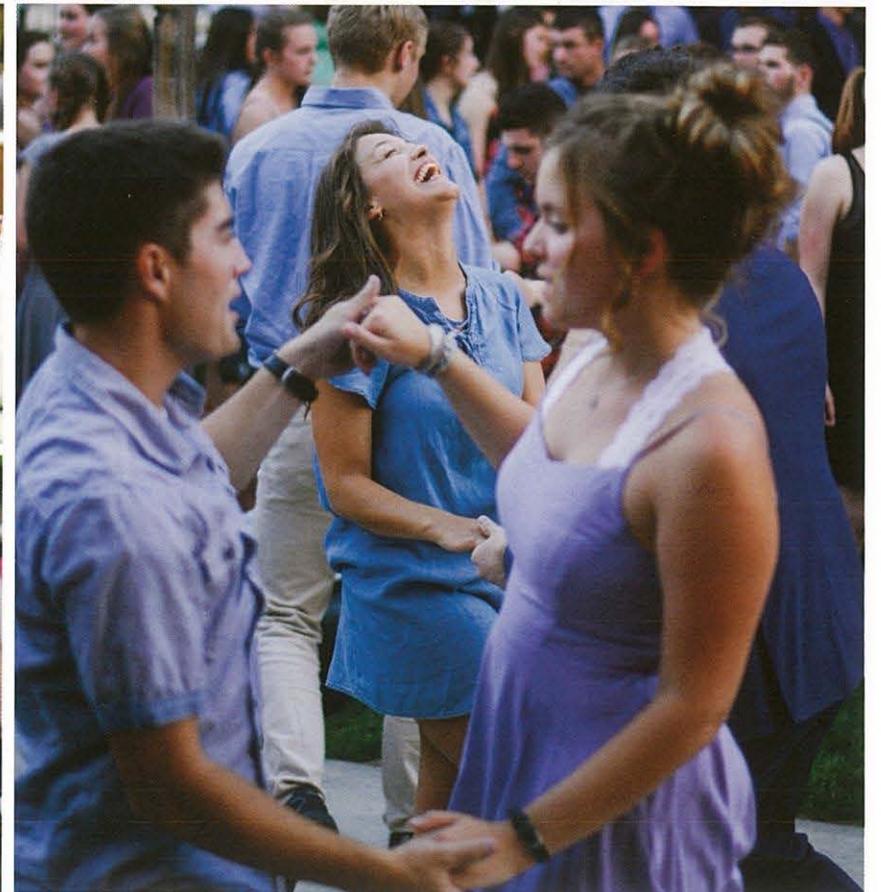

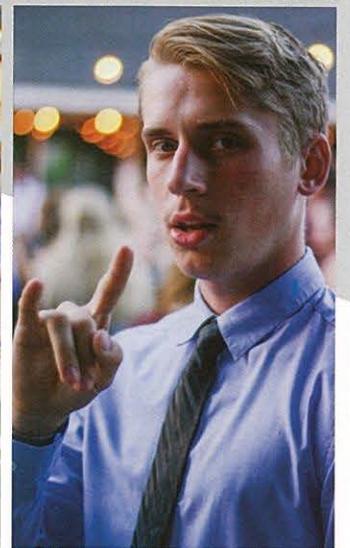

JAZZ ON THE LAWN

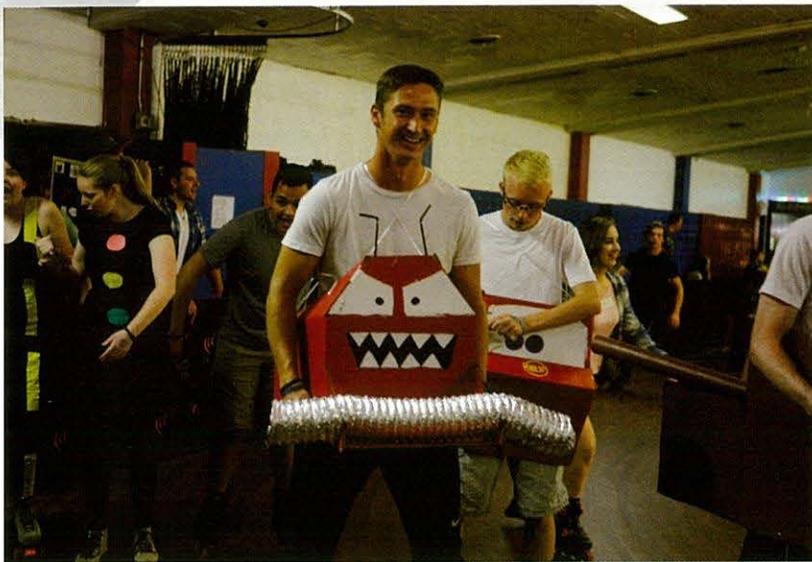

Near the closing of the Week One festivities, students came to the Brick House for Jazz on the Lawn. Students swing danced to their hearts' content while sipping on Italian sodas and listening to live music performed by student ensemble Jazz Renaissance.

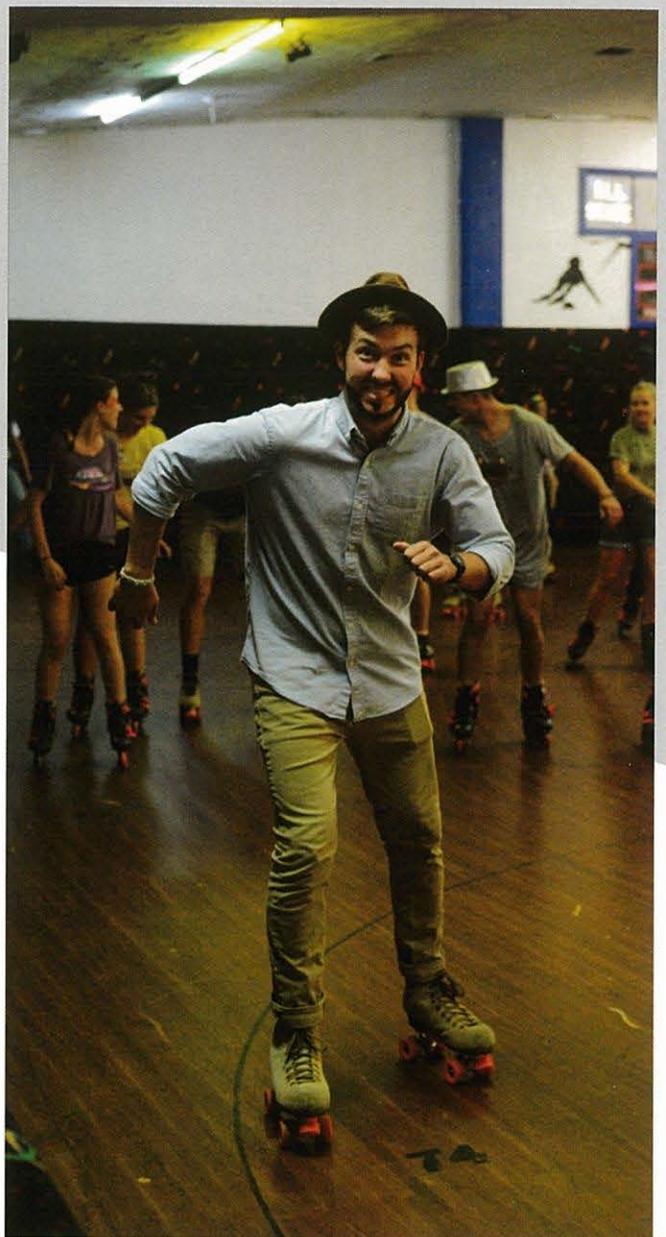

ROLLER SCAMMING

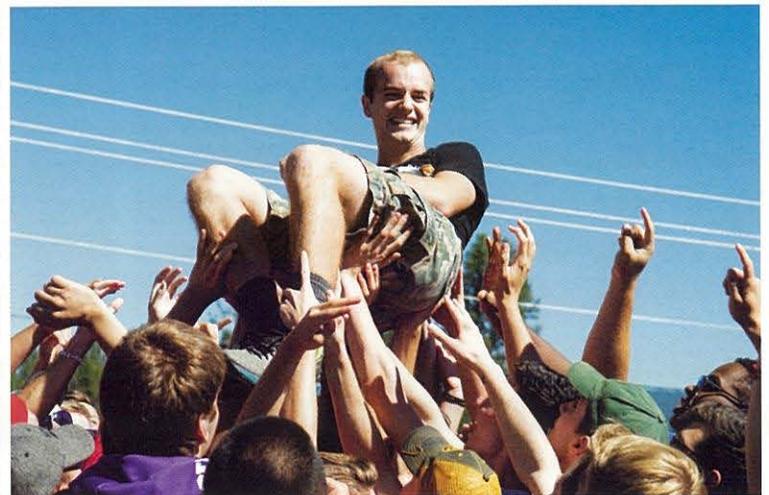

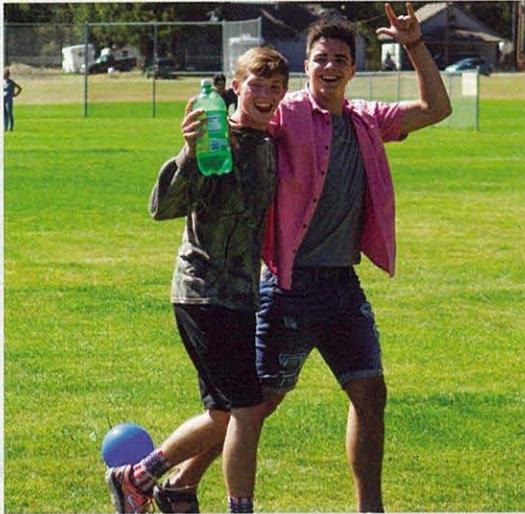

During this annual Week One favorite, hundreds of students flooded the Nampa Rollerdrome for a fun-filled night of skating. Sporting their most creative road-trip themed costumes, students competed in races and for the bragging rights of winning Best Costume. An evening of loud music, tons of fun, and plenty of epic spills, Rollerscamming was a major hit.

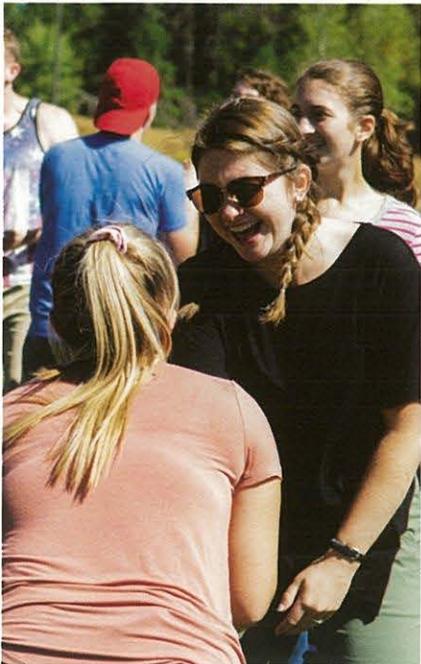

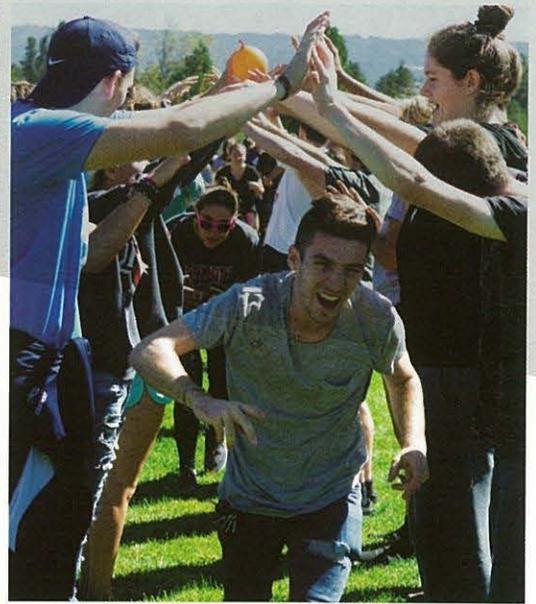

FRESHMAN RETREAT

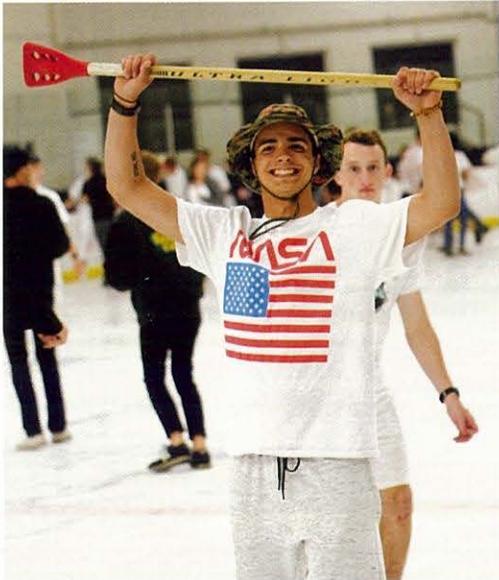

NNU Freshmen gathered together for a weekend of fun and fellowship to kick off their college adventure. After a quick introduction to NNU culture by Grant Miller, students got the chance to visit McCall, receive a crash-course in line-dancing, and rounded out the weekend with a Sunday morning message from Dustin Metcalf. New friendships formed through games, movie nights, and impromptu campfire worship sessions.

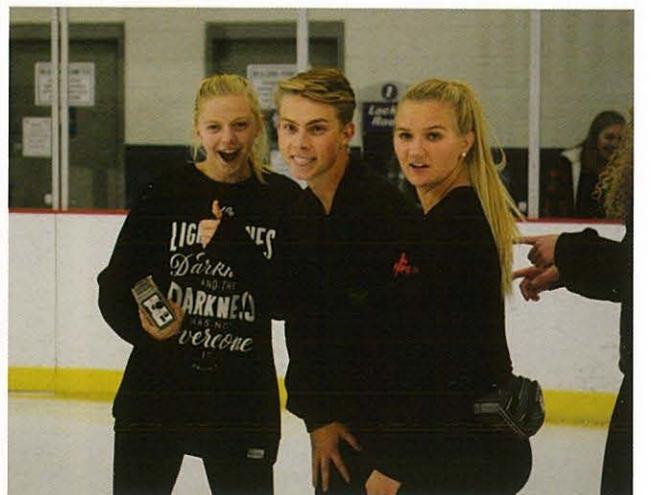

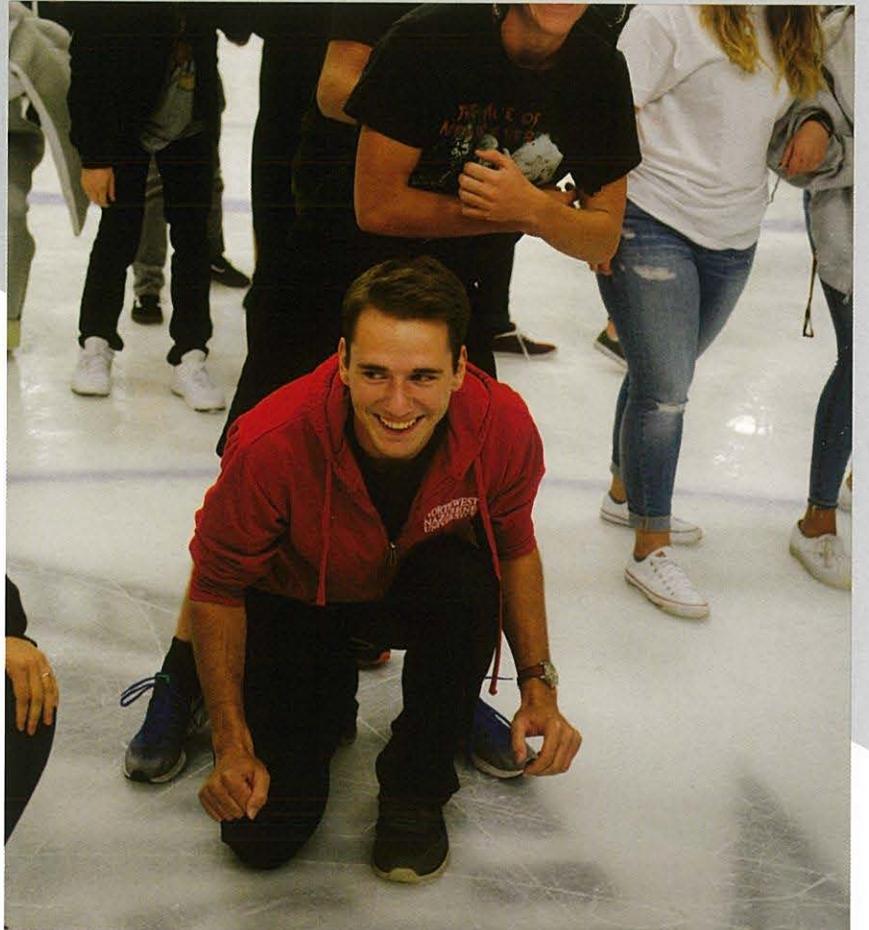

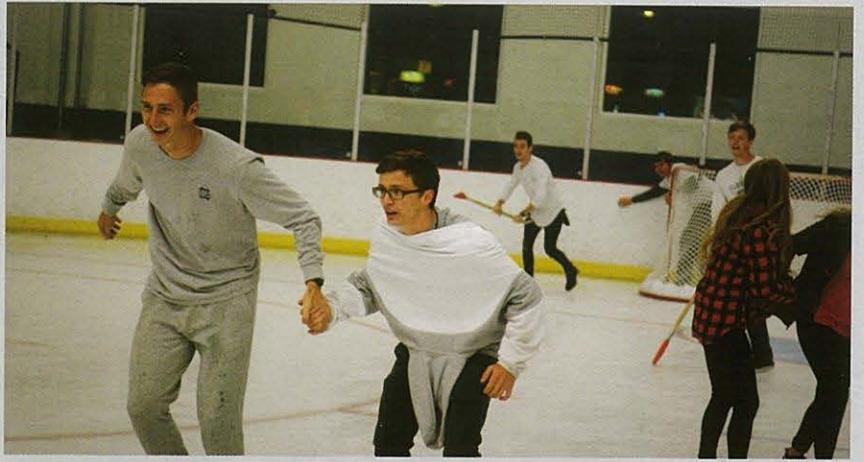

BROOM HOCKEY

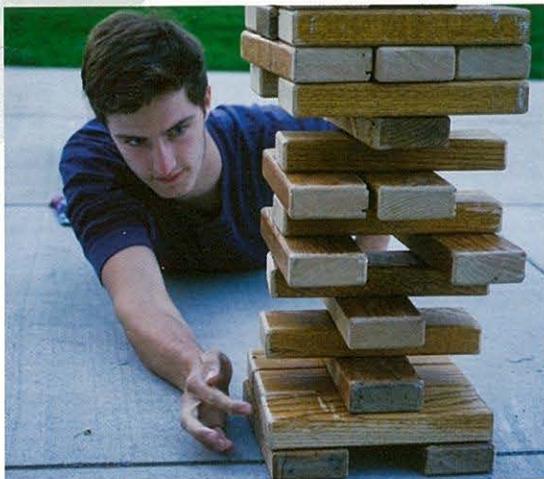

At the beginning of the year students come together at the local ice rink to play a variety of games, ranging from classic broom hockey to blob tag. With this many students sliding, smacking, and whacking, it's considered a miracle when no one gets a concussion at Broom Hockey. There were no miracles this year... but there was a fun shark costume (so that's nice).

FALL PARTY

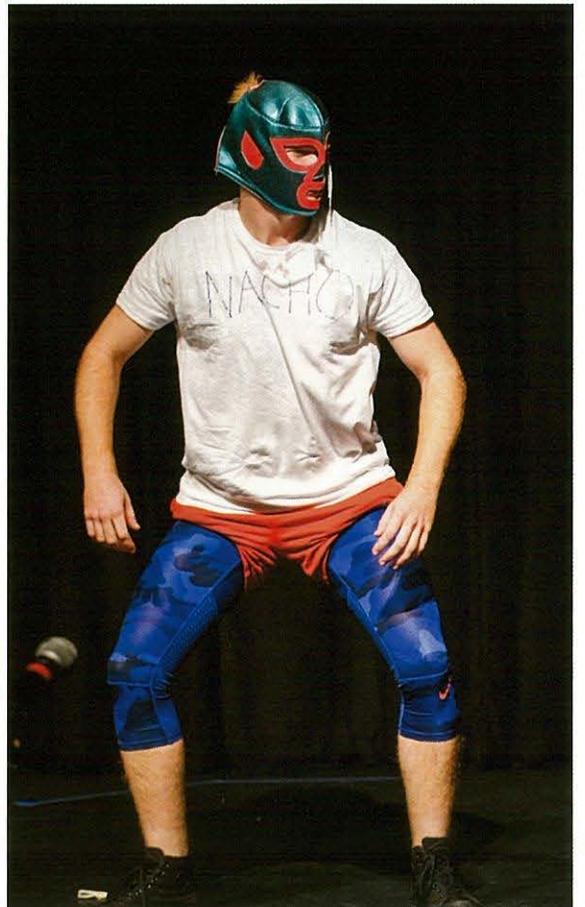

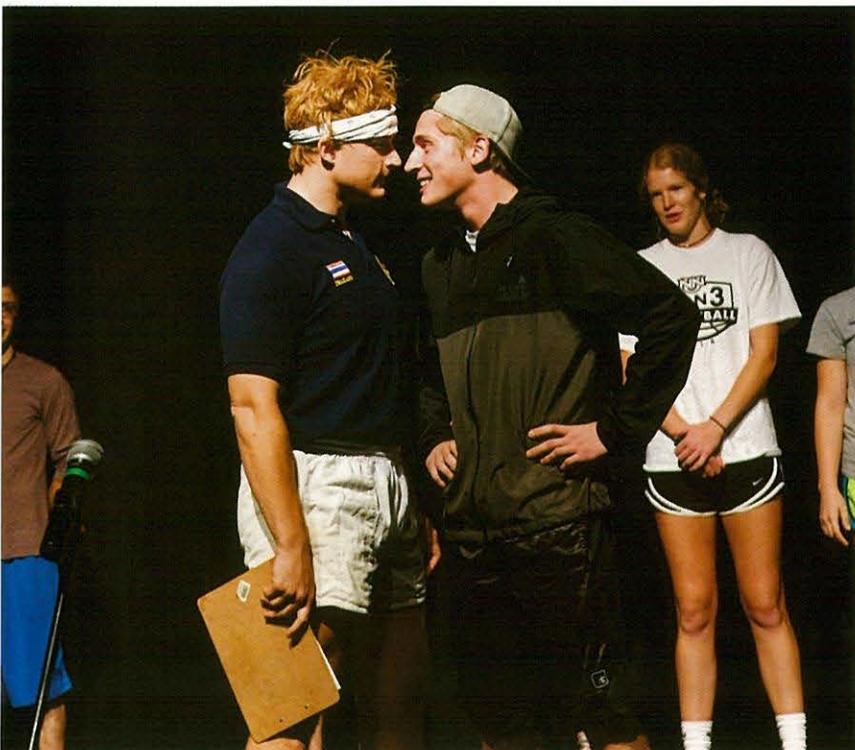

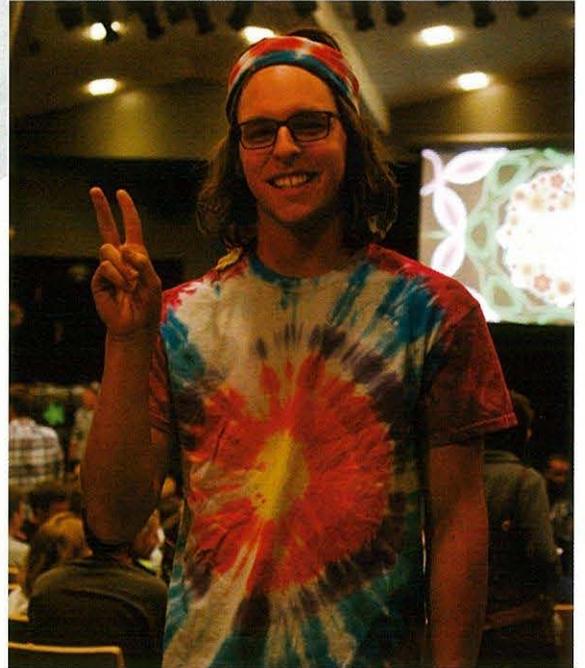

Everyone loves the annual party that is thrown in the fall semester because who doesn't want fall-themed activities, food, and a fun photo booth? The hayride is always a big hit every year; this time there were a variety of animals to pet including a rooster, mini horse, baby chicks, and the runaway goat that Grant Miller had to catch when it escaped.

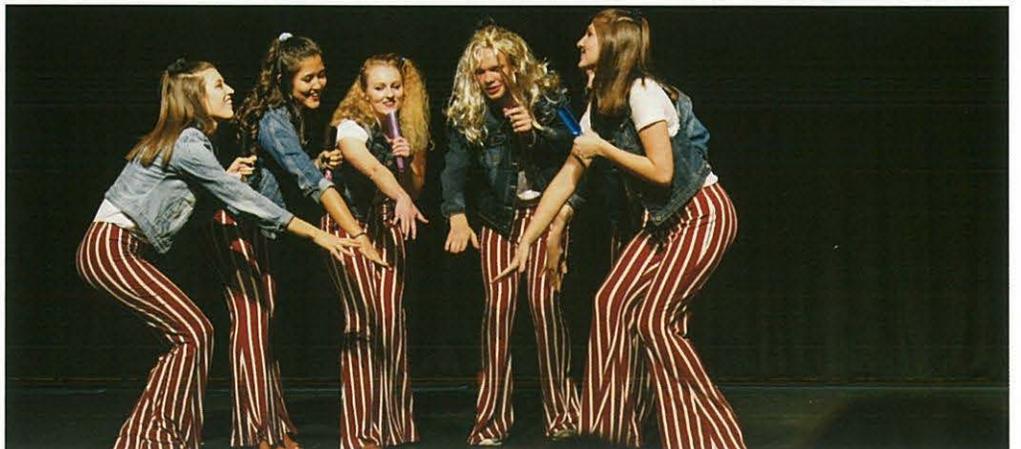

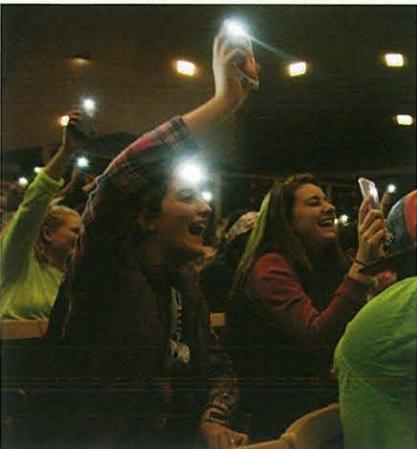

FRESHREE

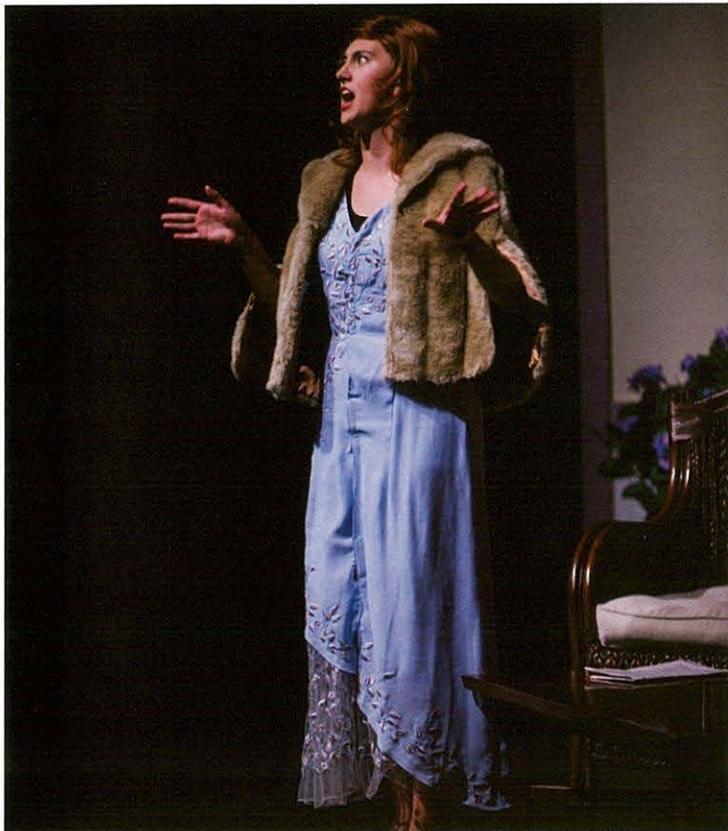

Students came together to put on the Funky Fresheree of 2018. The variety show consisted of funky skits, funky dance moves, and funky grandmas. Hosted by the guys from the Brick House, Fresheree was a night of laughter and fun for the students, by the students (and a bit of Grant Miller).

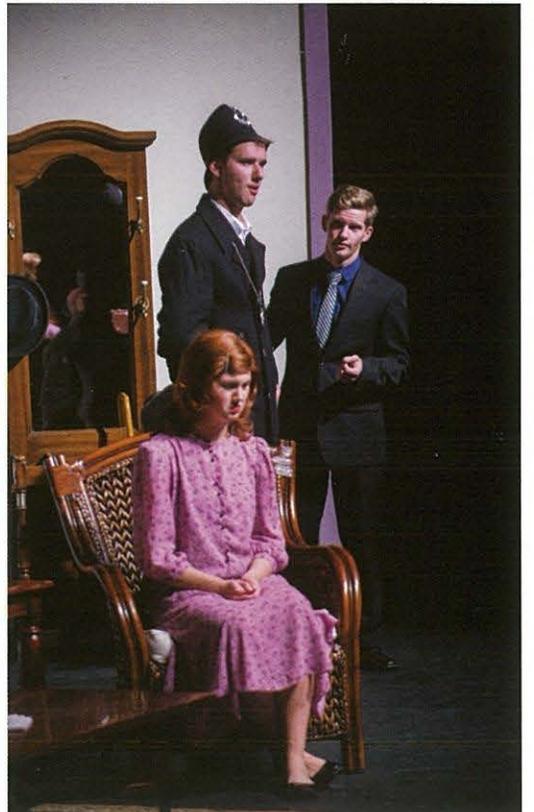

THE MURDER ROOM

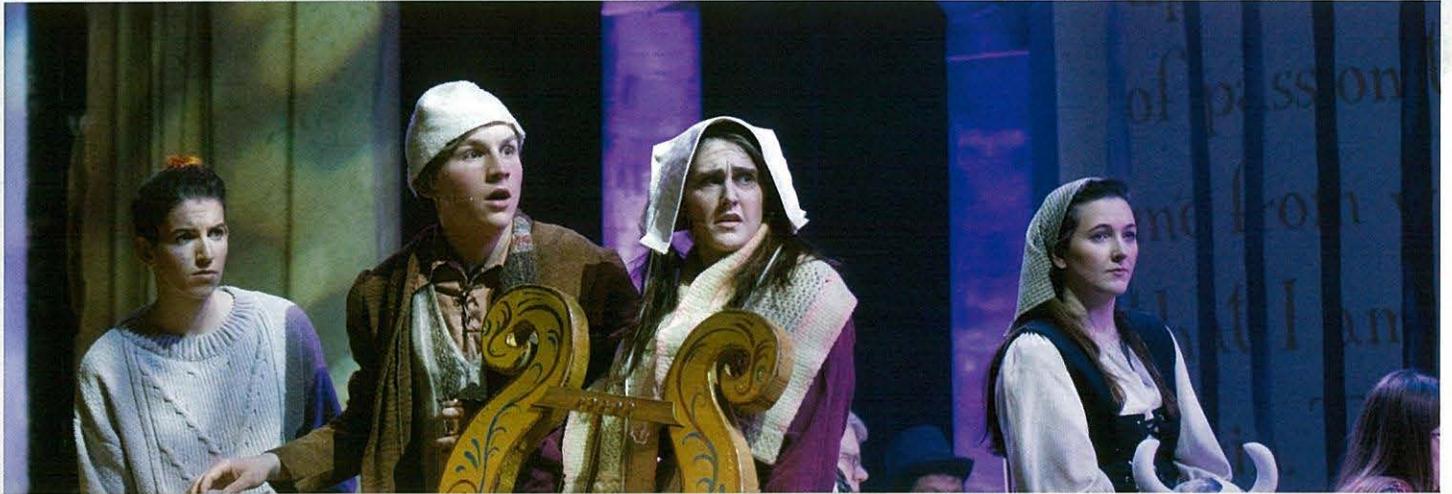

This year's homecoming play was a British farce by Jack Sharkey. Able to command impressive audiences at all showings, The Murder Room treated audiences to all sorts of comedic hijinx and quick witted dialogue, as the strange cast of characters unraveled the mystery behind Edgar Hollister's disappearance.

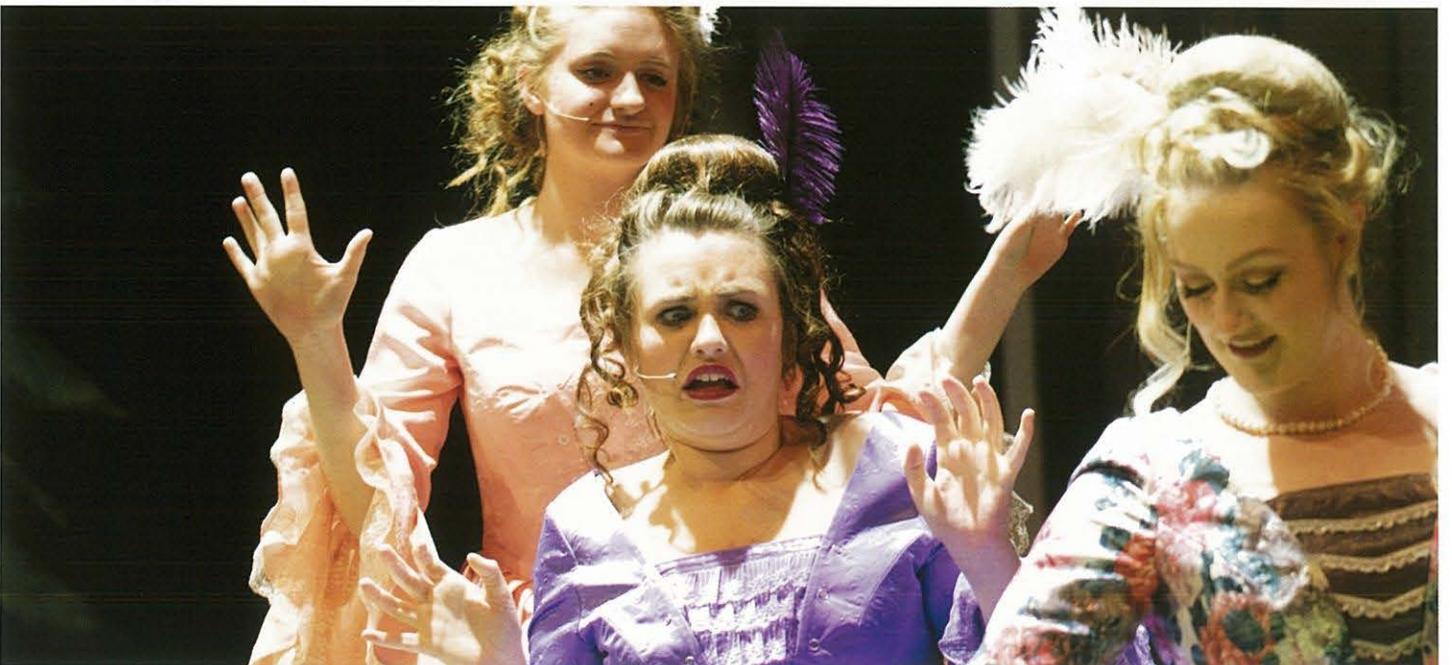

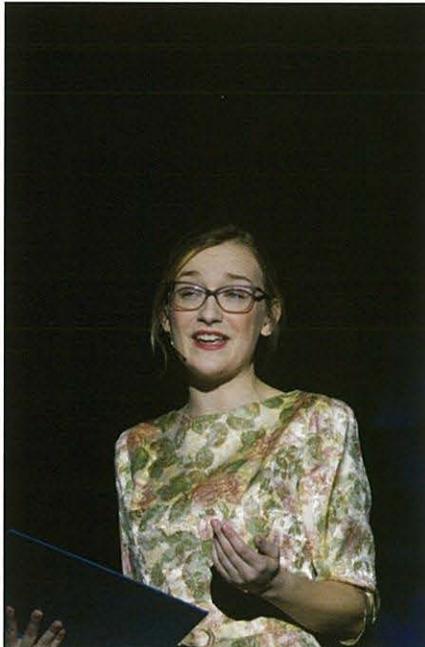

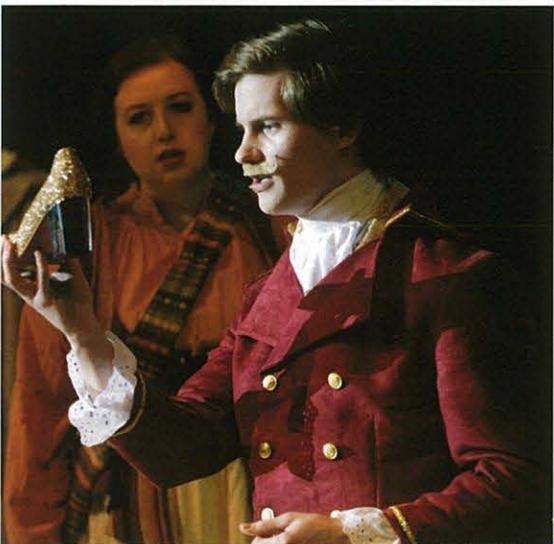

INTO THE WOODS

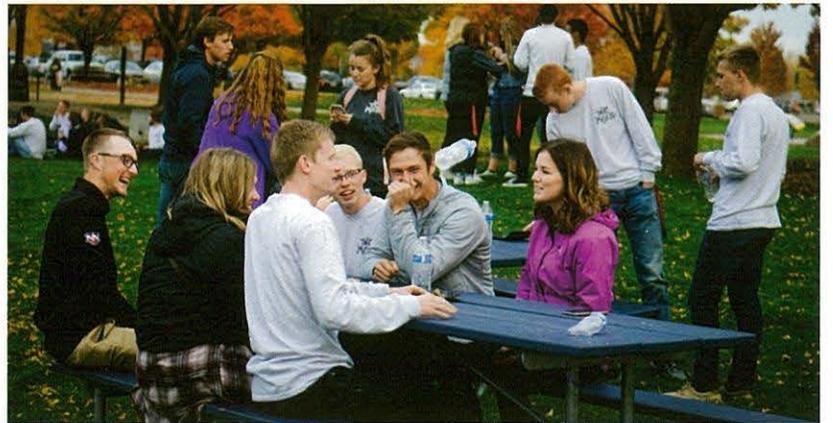

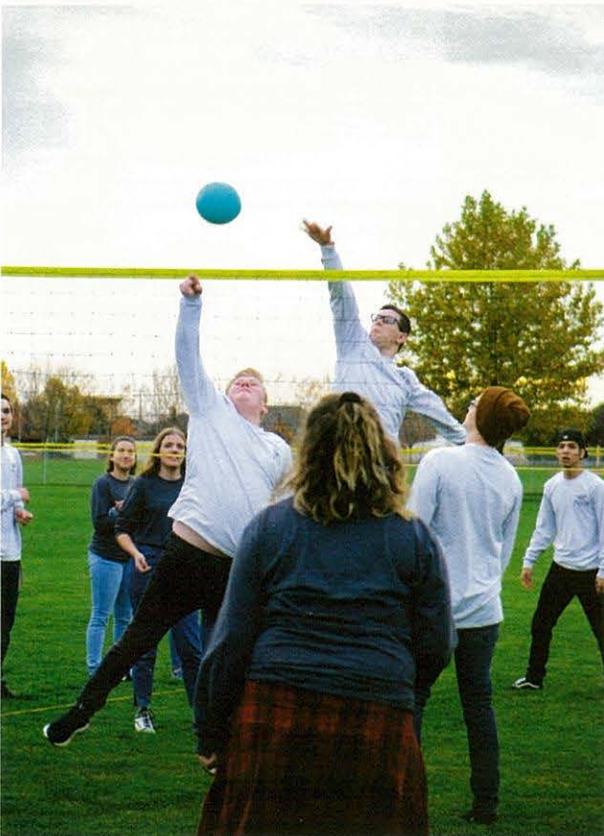

The Department of Music is known for putting on a spectacular musical every spring, and this year's production did not disappoint. In the staged concert version of Stephen Sondheim's Into the Woods, audiences were transported into the fairytale world of the Brothers Grimm. Packed with live orchestra, lighting, elaborate costumes and exceptional performances, Into the Woods was a magical weekend to remember.

TWIRP DAY 1

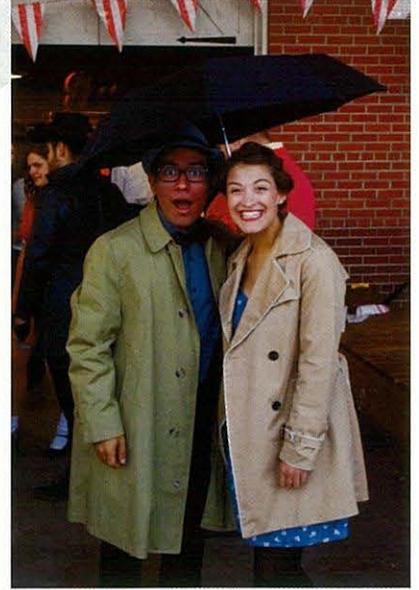

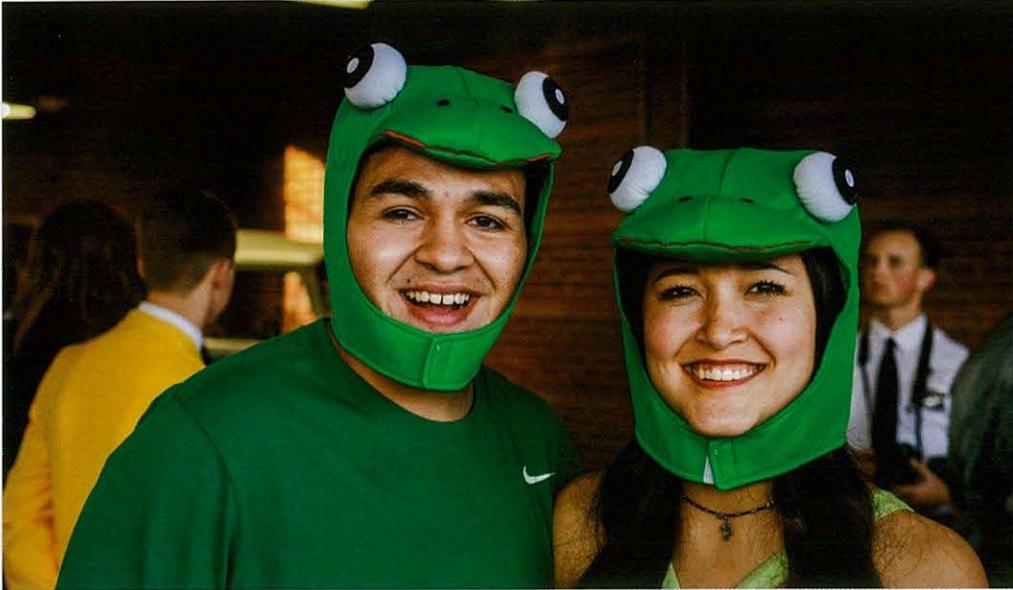

Twirp: "The Musical" made its debut this fall and was an instant hit. During the first night of Twirp, students gathered together for dinner and took over a local park before heading to their next event. Many went to The Village for a photo scavenger hunt, then took off for The Farmstead to get lost in its famous corn maze.

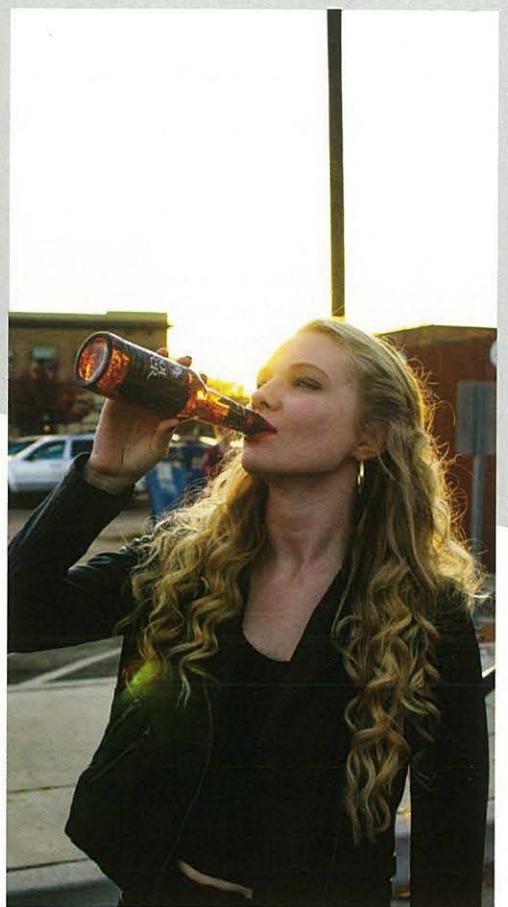

TWIRP DAY 2

HOMECOMING

This year's Homecoming Weekend festivities included a food truck rally, basketball game, after-party, cross-campus 5K, and intramural championships. The entire NNU community also came out for the Friday night basketball game! Our 2018-19 Homecoming royalty honored freshmen Jon Zane and Macie Doolin, sophomores Aaron Hernandez and Macie Doolin, juniors Kevin Wheeler and Bethany Danner, and seniors Ian Rohnert, Emily Nance, Aaron Rogers, Elizabeth Colbert, Josh Dringenberg, and Heidi Delashaw. In the end, Josh Dringenberg and Heidi Delashaw were announced as the 2018 Homecoming King and Queen.

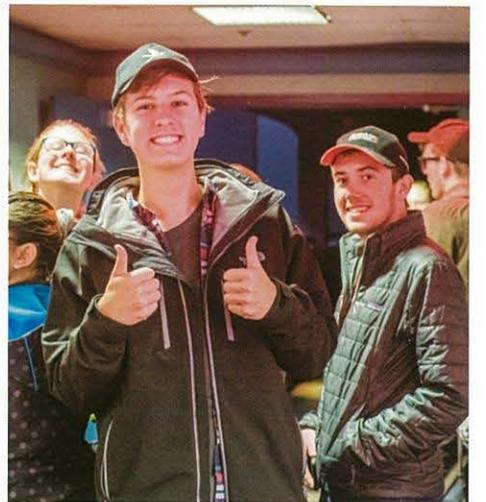

PIES AND FRIES

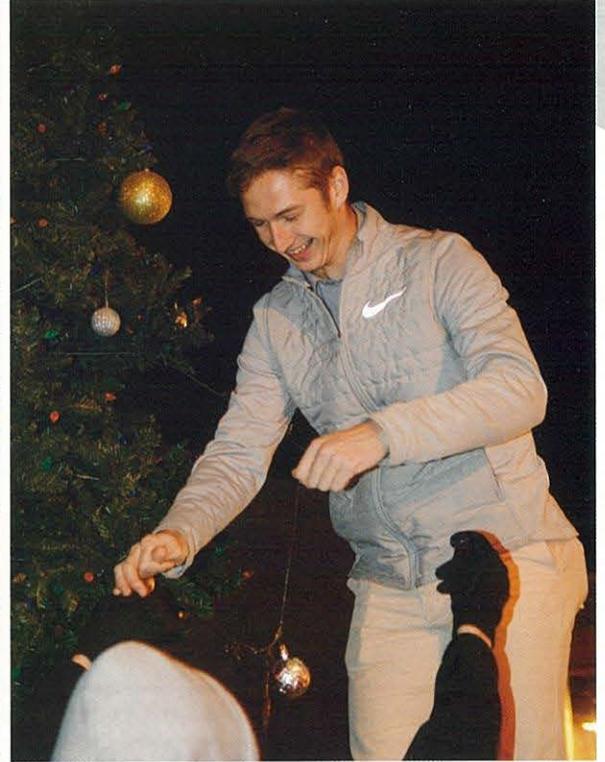

NNU rented out Shari's for the fourth year in a row for students to cram inside the diner and eat fries, pies, and pie shakes. Following the late-night treat, the midnight movie at the Reel Theater was a fun way to keep procrastinating on homework. Thank you to the Shari's employees that served us again this year!

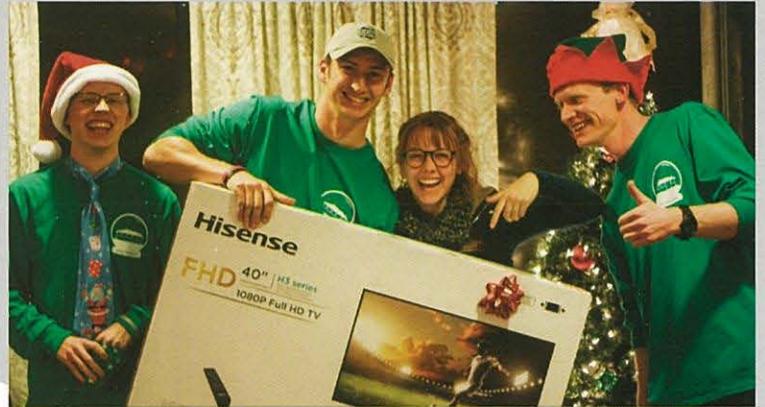

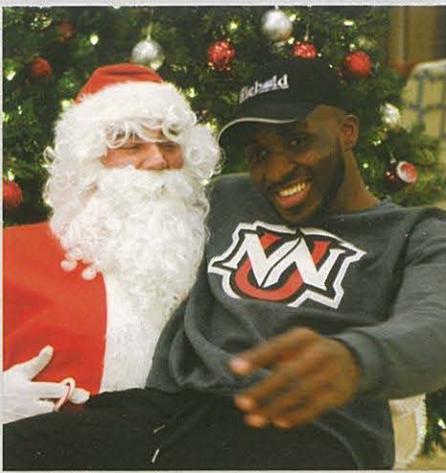

WEEK OF CHEER

Everyone was a little less dead during Dead Week because of all the fun events during Week of Cheer! The festivities included pop up events by your Class Councils, the tree lighting outside the Student Center, a Christmas Timeout, a Wednesday Night Live show, a Very Merry Brickmas Party, and ice skating at Caldwell Indian Creek Plaza. The procrastination was strong this year at Week of Cheer.

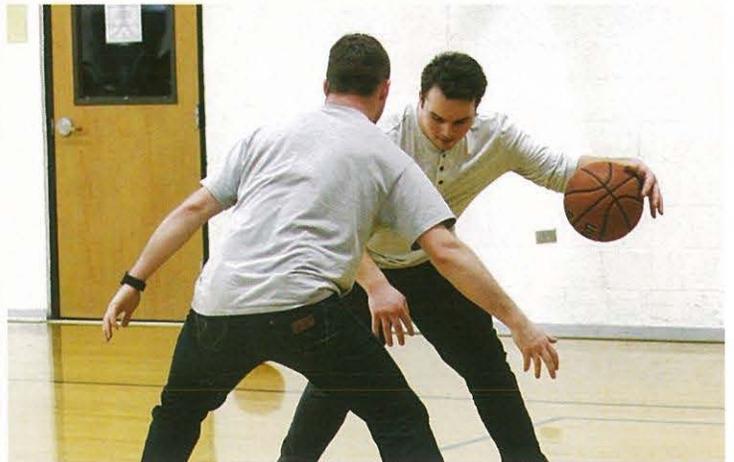

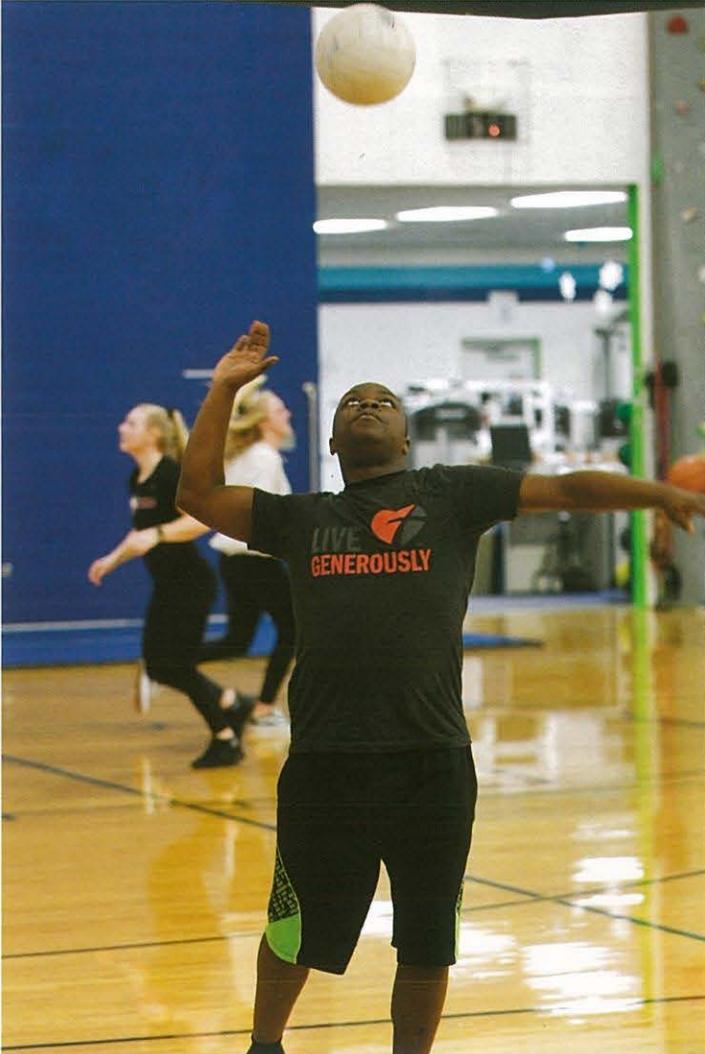

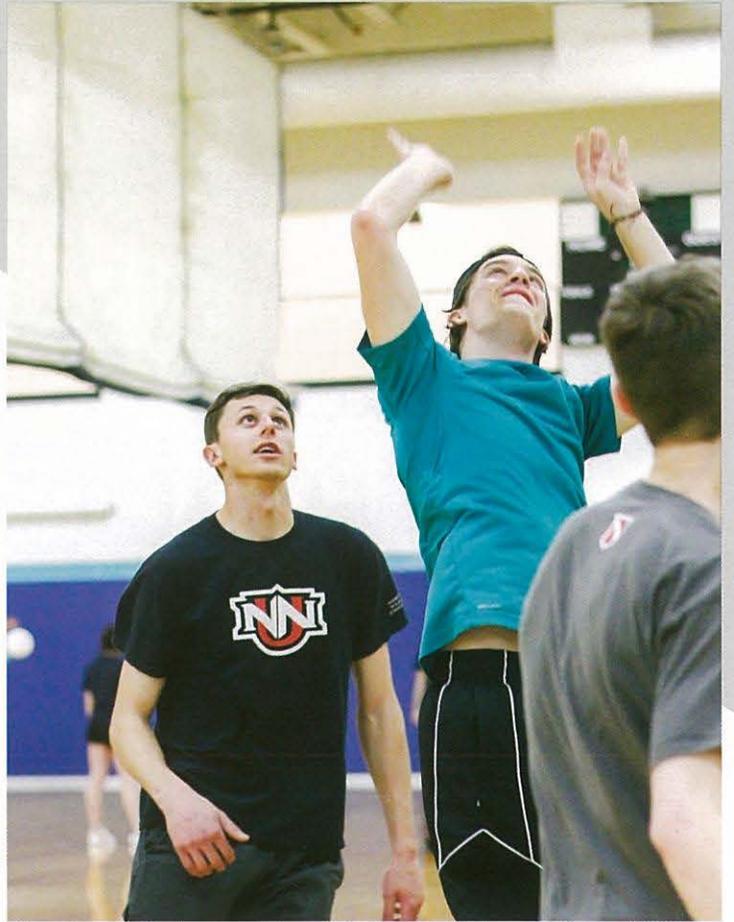

WEEK BACK

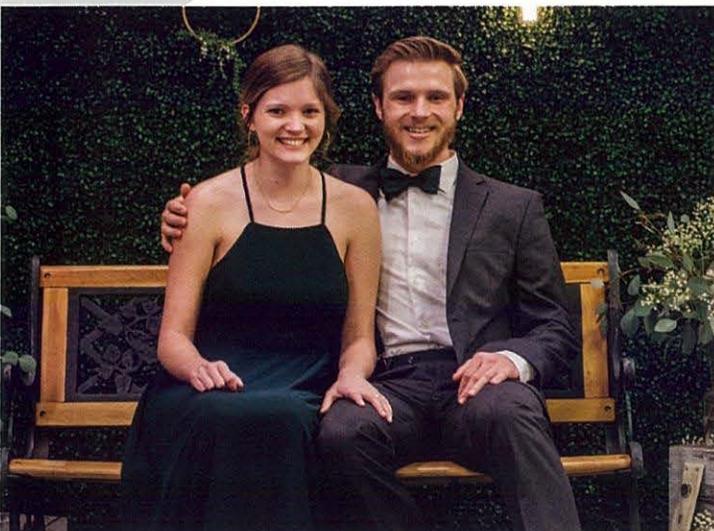

During week back, students celebrated the start of 2019 with the first Timeout of the spring semester. Everybody sang together and shared cardboard testimonies, worshipping together as a community. Friday evening, students hung out at the Nampa Rec Center for a night of recreation and fun. Everybody enjoyed the night of racquetball, rock climbing, swimming, basketball, and tennis to kick-off the semester.

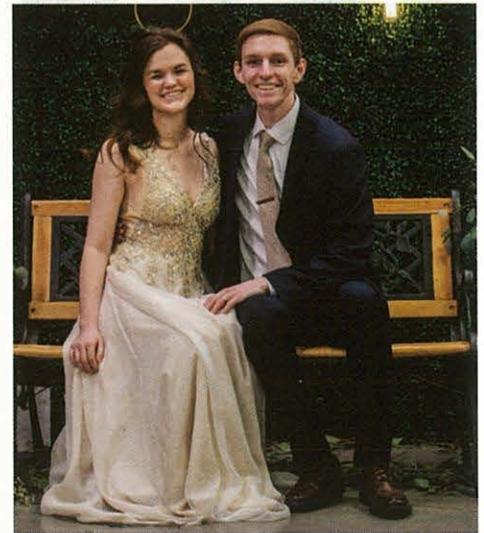

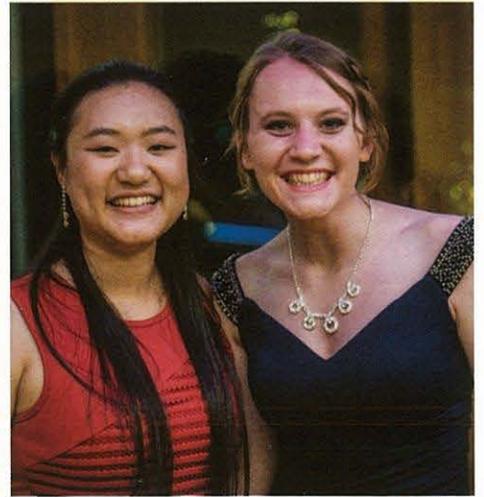

BLACK TIE

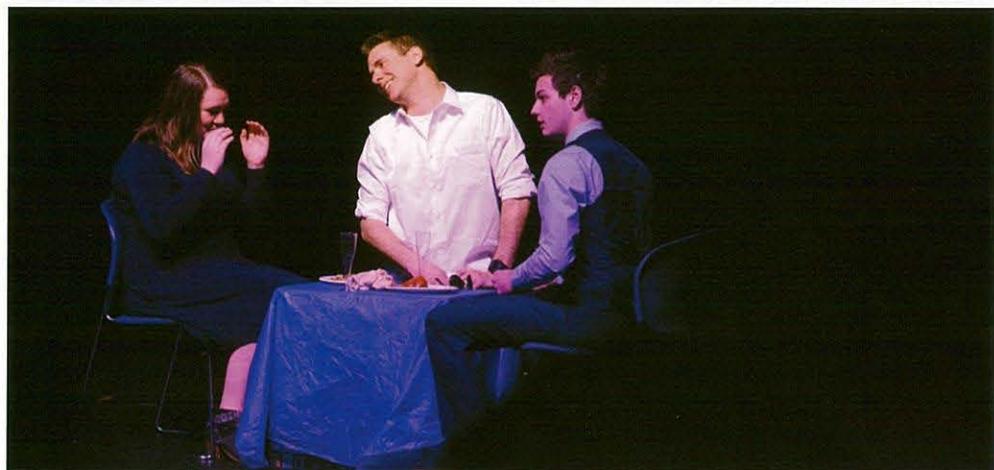

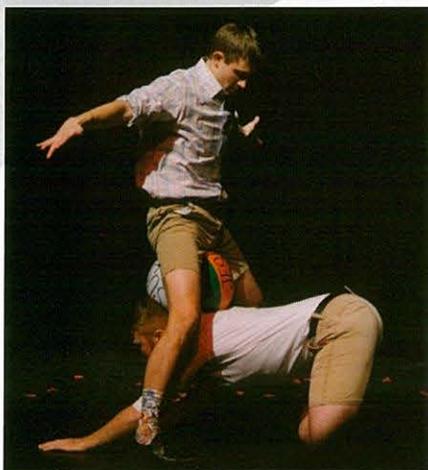

During the first night of Black Tie, students attended Night of the Arts, the annual art show that showcases student art work. The work ranged from photography and sculptures to short stories and jazz music. The second night of Black Tie was the formal event, which was held at JUMP in Boise. The theme this year was The Secret Garden. Lots of pictures were taken, along with a trivia contest that resulted in table 28 winning the grand prize of one succulent per person.

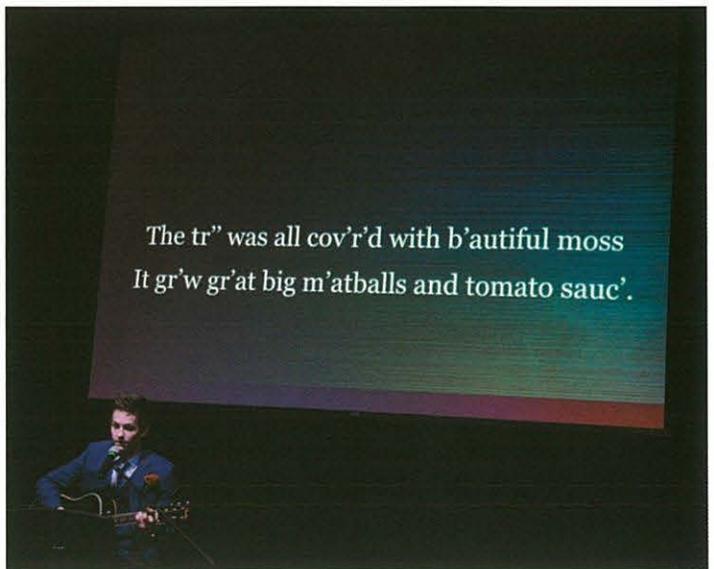

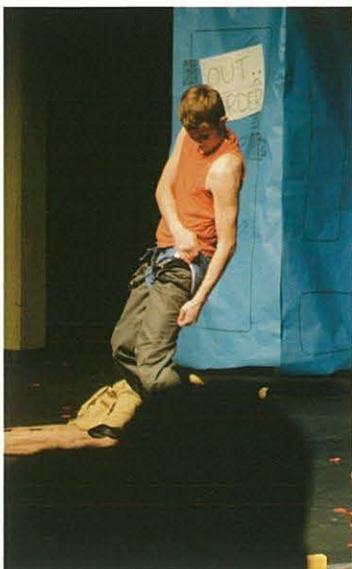

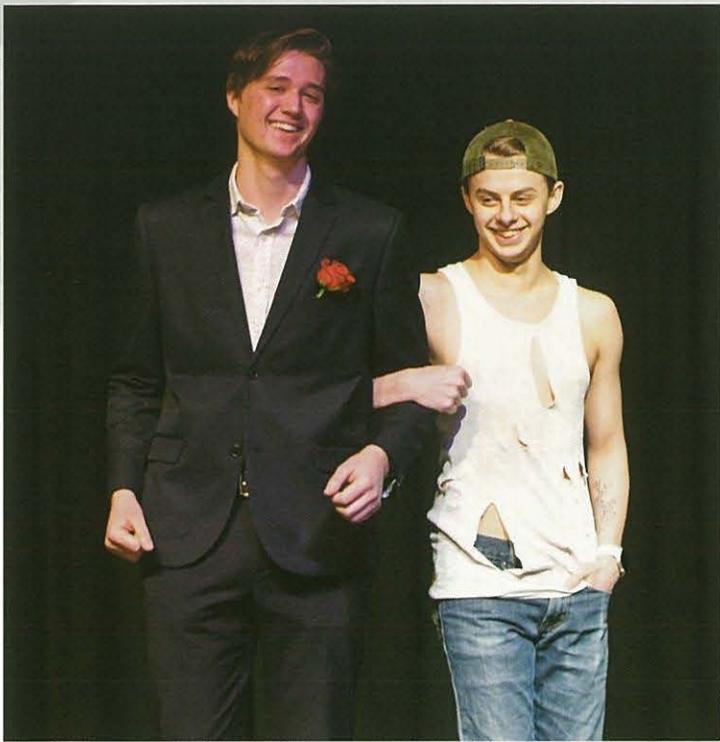

MR. NNU

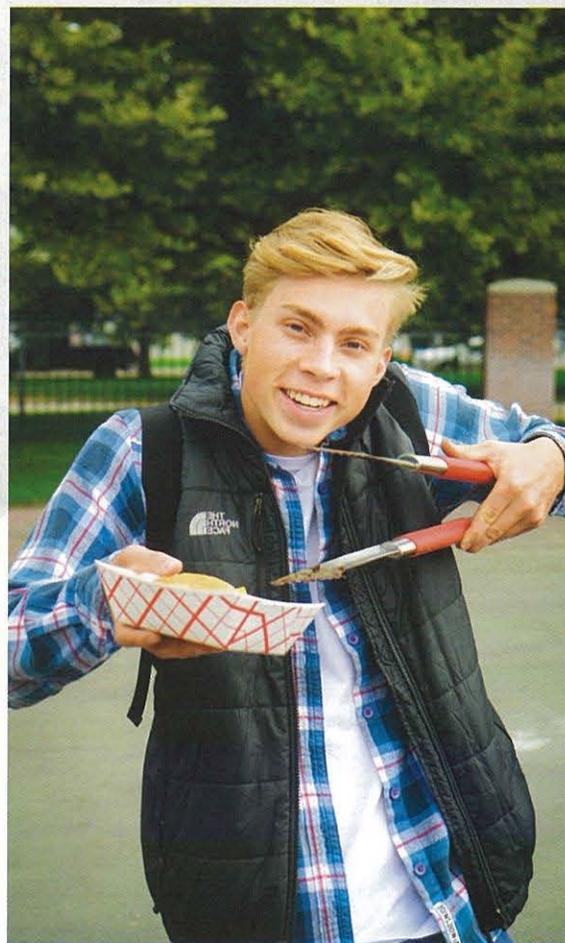

This year's Mr. NNU theme "The Bachelorette" was a fierce competition between two of the most handsome young men from each class. The first round consisted of skits performed by both bachelors from each class in hopes of winning over the judges early on. After intermission, each bachelor performed their very own skit as their final opportunity to prove that they are this year's Mr. NNU. After a night full of laughter and attempts to prove themselves worthy of the golden rose, Kaleb Davis was chosen to be the winner of this year's competition.

CLUB FAIR

Organized by SGA Student Organization Coordinator Nicole Nobbs, the club fair was a fun event for students to explore the different student organizations on campus! Represented clubs excitedly recruited new members as students walked through rows of canopies while enjoying the free food and soccer game. With over 30 student organizations on campus, there are so many opportunities to get involved.

CLUBS

Clubs are a great way for students to get connected with others around similar passions and interests. Students have opportunities to participate in a variety of club activities, including community service, video games, outdoor rec, ministry, business, dancing, sports, crafting, and more! Our clubs had a great year putting on fun events for the entire student body to enjoy.

JOURNEYS

DEPARTMENT OF MUSIC

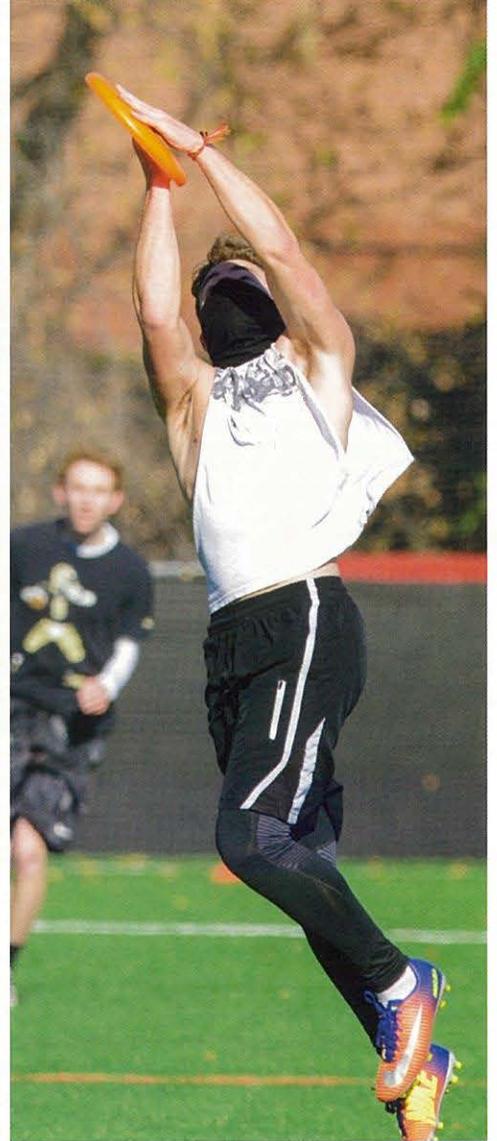

NNU's Department of Music is home to a large variety of talented musicians. Throughout the year the music department showcased student talent and brought the community together through various concerts, including the Homecoming Concert and Noel. Musical groups and Ensembles include Concert band, University Choir and Orchestra, Jazz Revival, Jazz Renaissance, and Northwesterners.

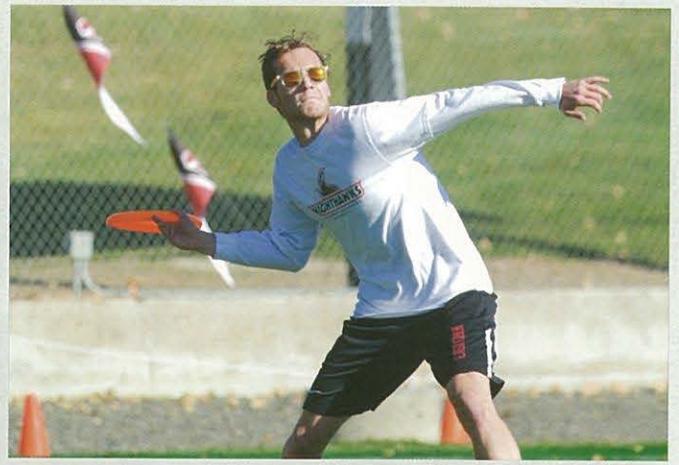

INTRAMURALS (FALL)

Intramurals are a great opportunity for all NNU students to participate in a variety of different sports. Fall sports included ultimate frisbee, flag football, and outdoor volleyball. The fall season ended with championships and the prize of a t-shirt and eternal glory for the winning teams.

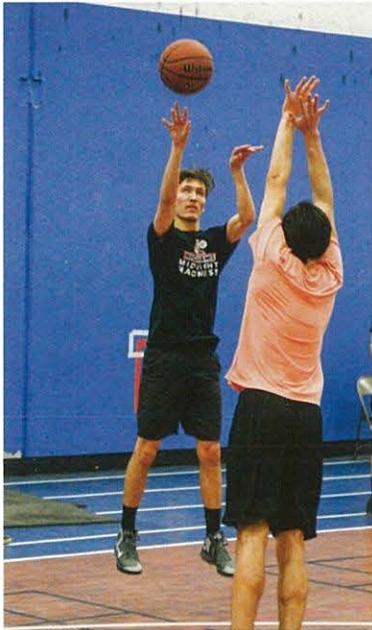

INTRAMURALS (SPRING)

As with fall Intramurals, the spring offers students with a wide variety of sports to participate in. These include indoor basketball, indoor volleyball, indoor soccer, and softball. This year brought in an incredible number of participants with well over 200 people in indoor volleyball alone. Thanks to our loving Intramural Overlord, Skye Johnson, for making all of this possible!

NNU SERVE WEEK

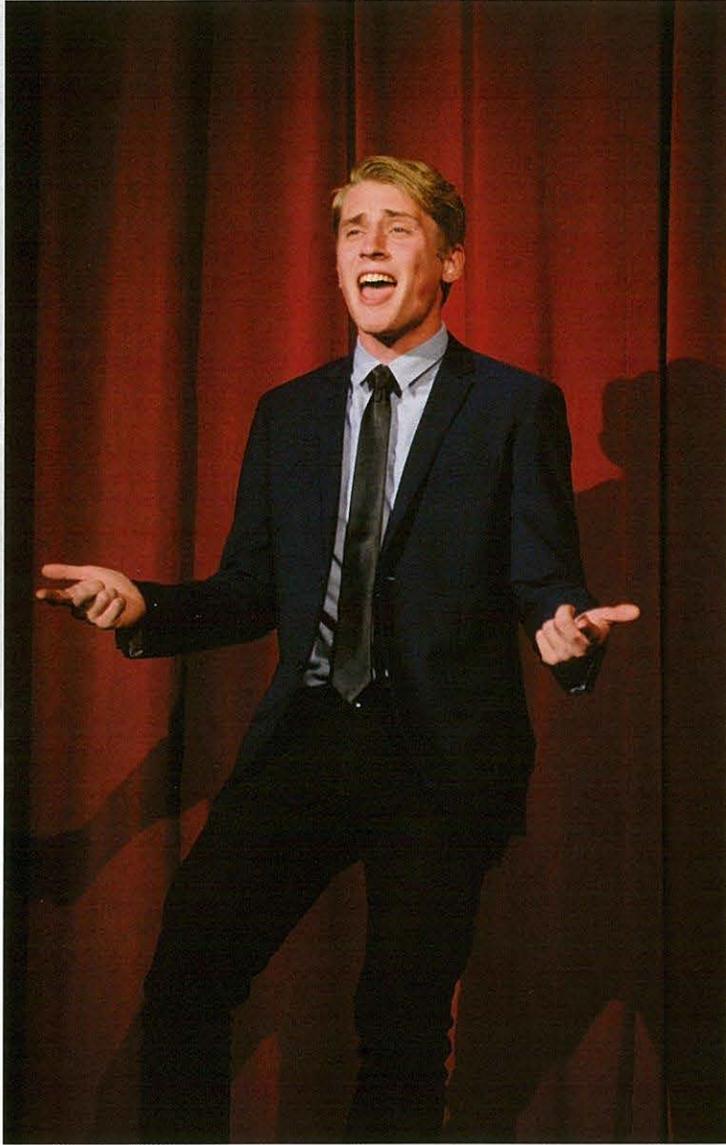

NNU students committed to a week of serving and showing God's love to the community. Each day students had the opportunity to get involved in service projects that ranged from cleaning up the campus to filling out cards for the elderly. At the end of the week, students came together to raise money for elementary schools, rake up yards across Nampa, and organize clothes for the Boise Rescue Mission. Serves up!

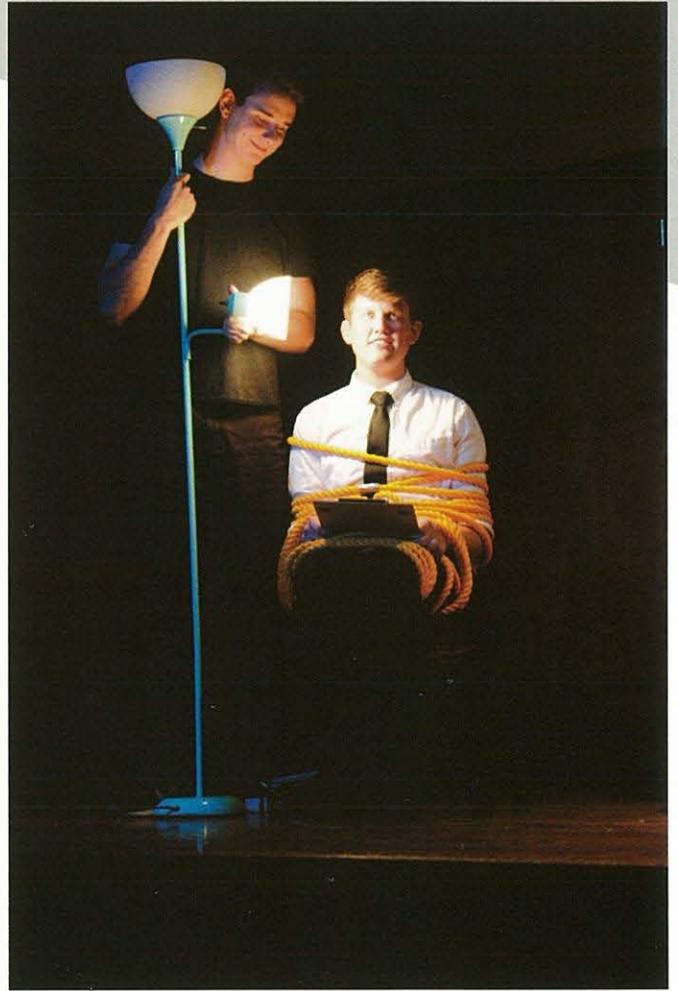

WEDNESDAY NIGHT LIVE

Wednesday Night Live was a time for students to take a break from studying and to gather for a night full of comedy produced by your very own classmates. Inspired by various stand up comedians and skits from the well loved show "Whose Line is it Anyway?" talented NNU students took to the stage and never failed to supply a night full of laughter to the student body.

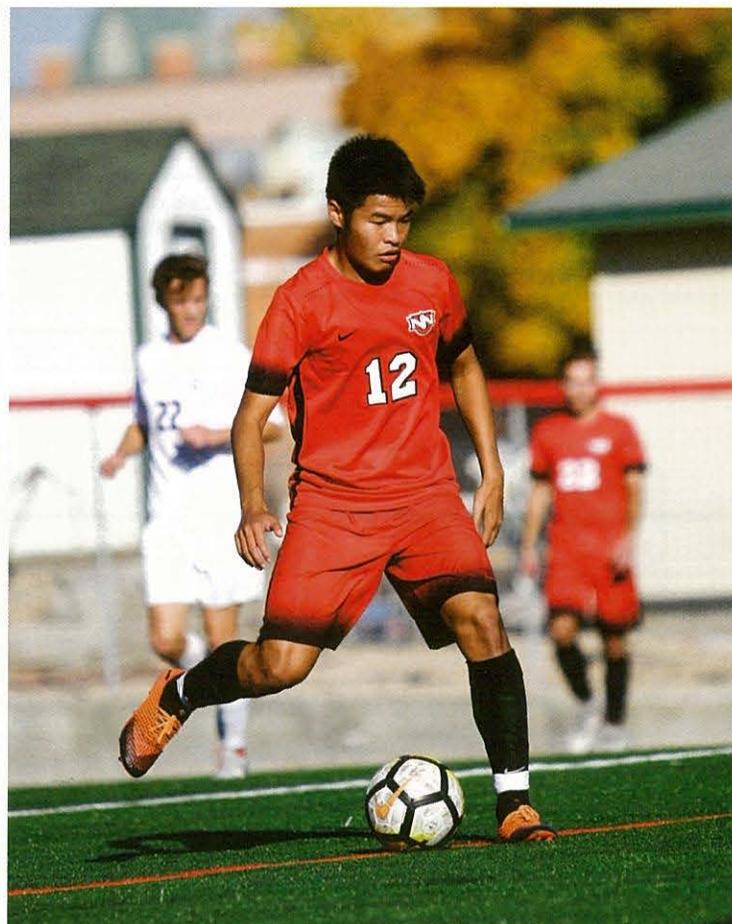

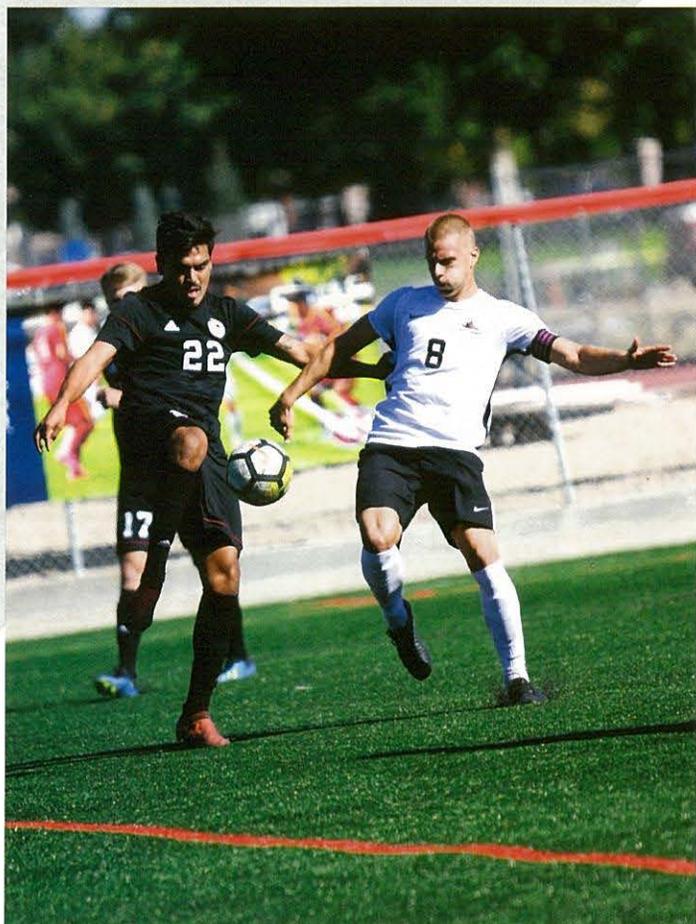

ATHLETICS

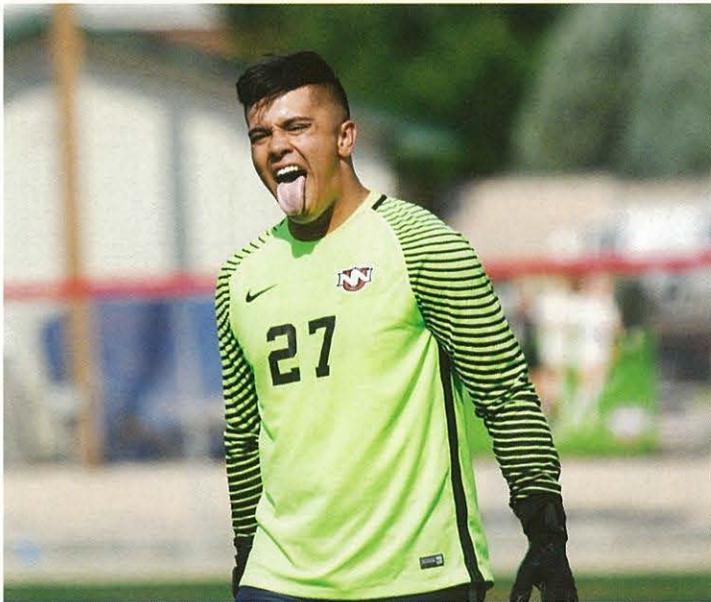

MEN'S SOCCER

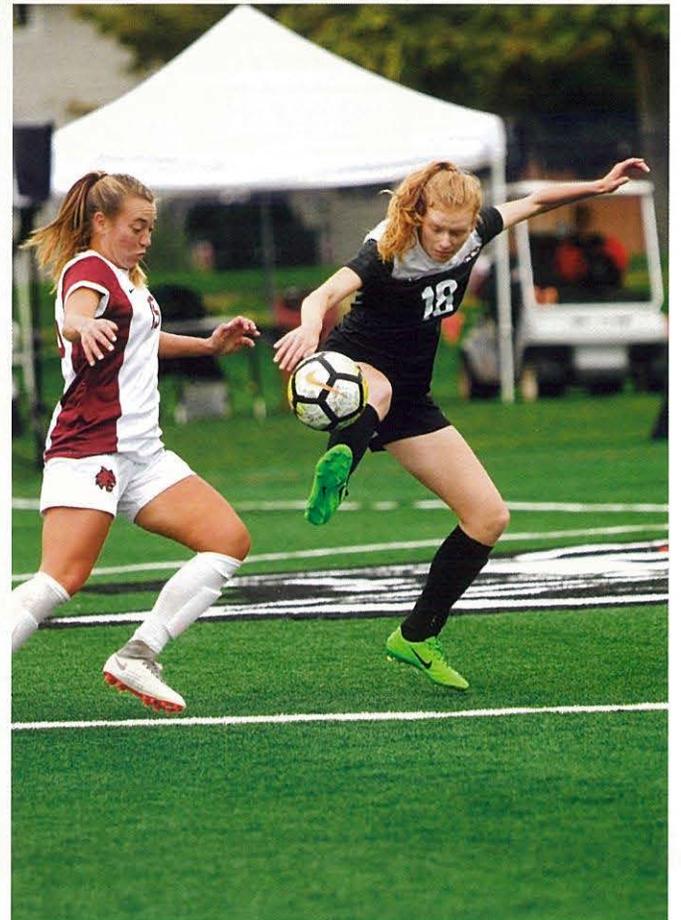

NNU men's soccer team finished this season with a 3-14-1 overall record. Senior Alex Mitrovic tied the NNU men's soccer record for most games started, at 59 games, in his four-year career here at NNU. Also, special recognition to the graduating seniors along with Alex Mitrovic; Jose Labanino-Ramos, Logan Wood, Colin Anderson, Eric Franco and Micah Tranch.

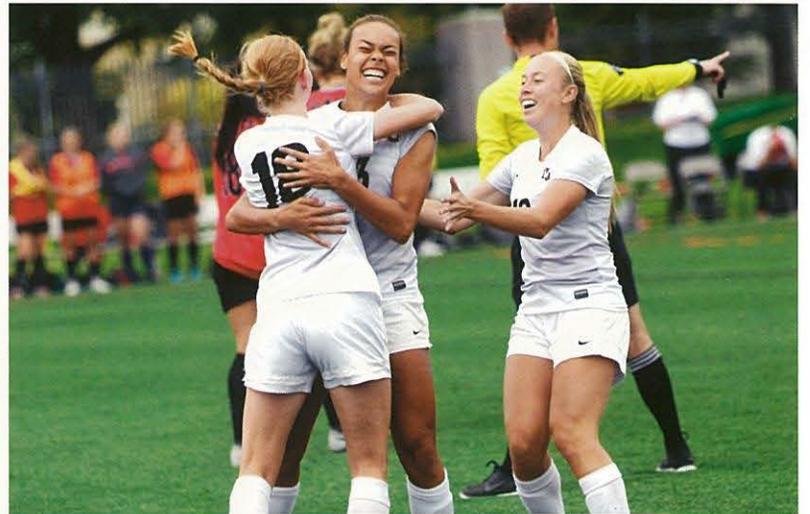

WOMEN'S SOCCER

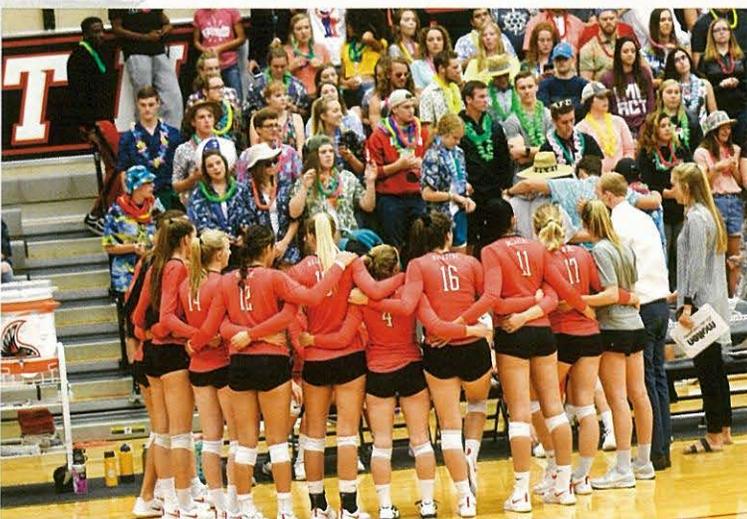

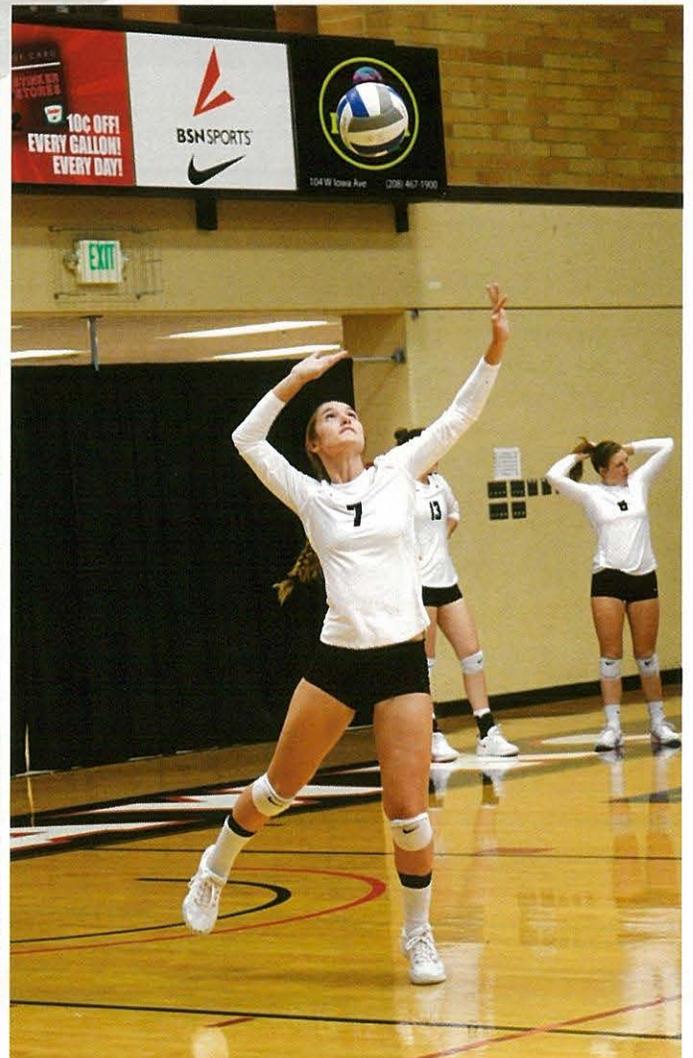

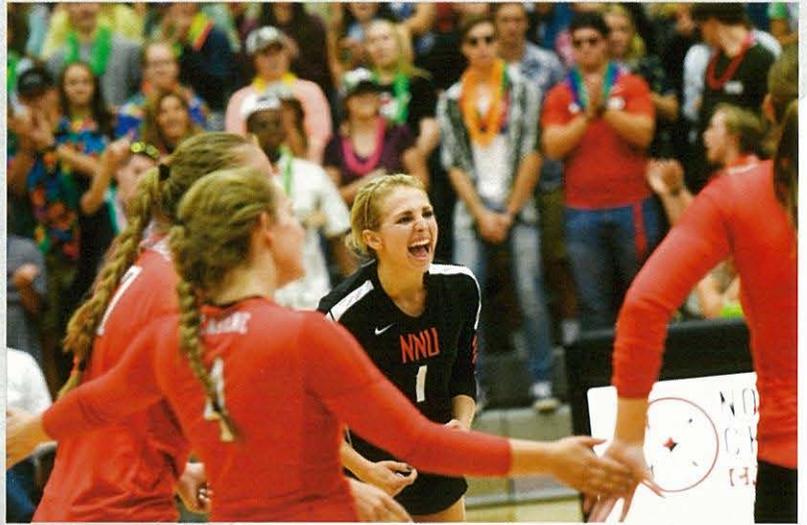

NNU women's soccer team finished the season with a 8-8-1 overall record. Madi Taylor and Rikki Myers led the women's team this year with 6 goals each. The women's team sent their four seniors; Olivia Carter, Kaisa Tsuruta, Madi Taylor and Chloe Sholtz off with a win against Simor Fraiser, placing them 6th overall in the GNAC.

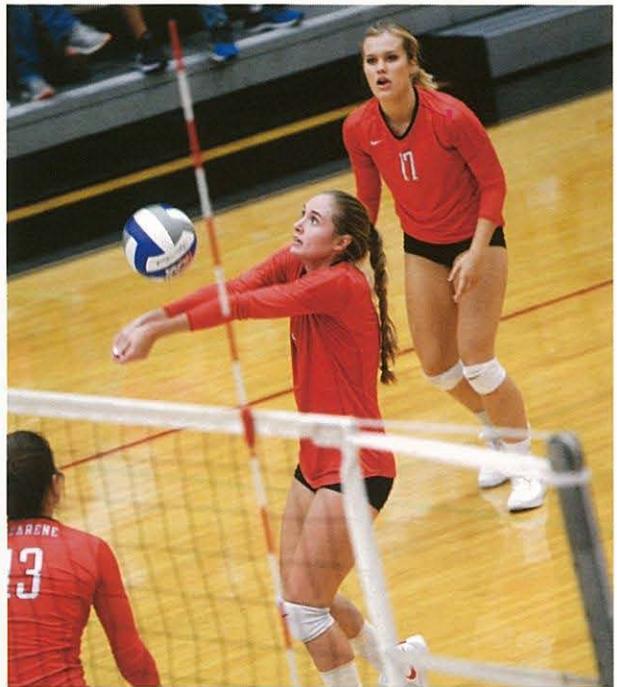

VOLLEYBALL

The Nighthawk's volleyball 2018 season was a season of excitement and energy from all players. Seniors Shayli Siegfried, Cami Heninger, and Natalie Knauf led the team through the creation of a camaraderie that was loved by all of their teammates and fans. The girls are looking forward to using the team dynamics built this year to improve in the seasons to come.

CROSS COUNTRY

The Men's and Women's Cross Country teams competed their hearts out this season and both took home a 6th place finish at the GNAC conference meet. Godfrey Kemboi and Nick Hamilton, for the men's team, along with Bethany Danner and Kalen Johnson, for the women's team, represented NNU at the NCAA Division II West Region Championship.

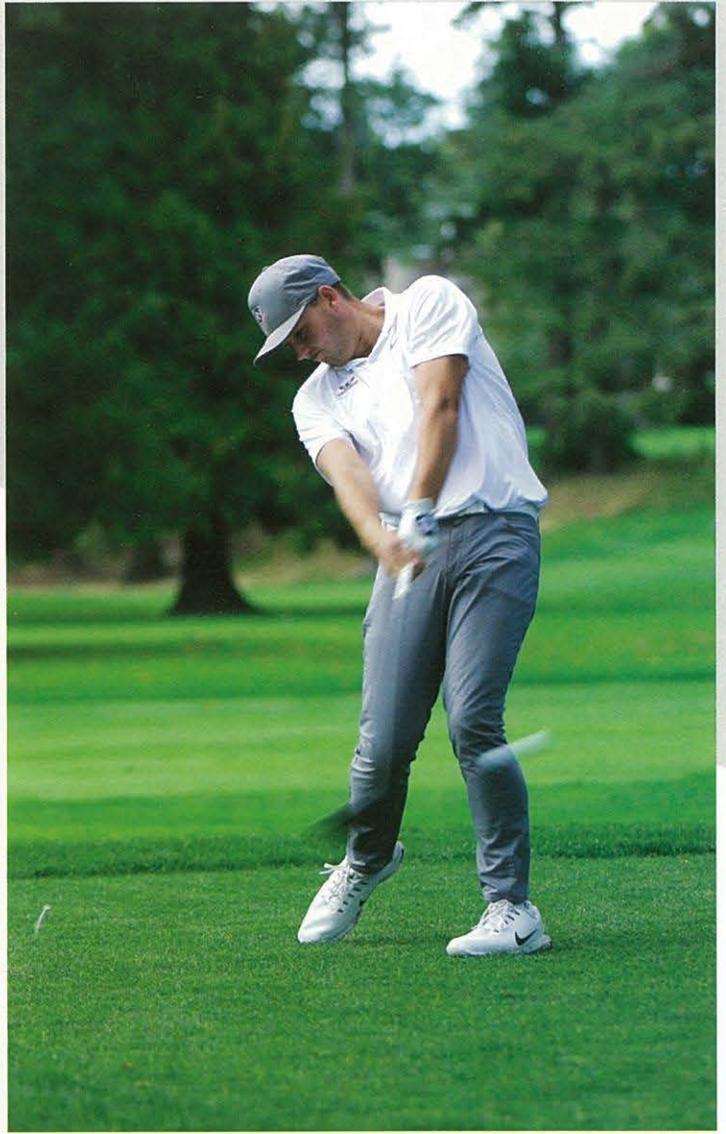

MEN'S GOLF

This year's men's golf team consisted of a wealth of talent. Seniors Luke Vaarstra and Justin Higgins led the team with poise and experience throughout the season. Justin never missed a tournament in his four year career with the team. The team's score leader was Henry Bernard with a scoring average of 76.7 who looks to make a lasting mark on the program.

WOMEN'S GOLF

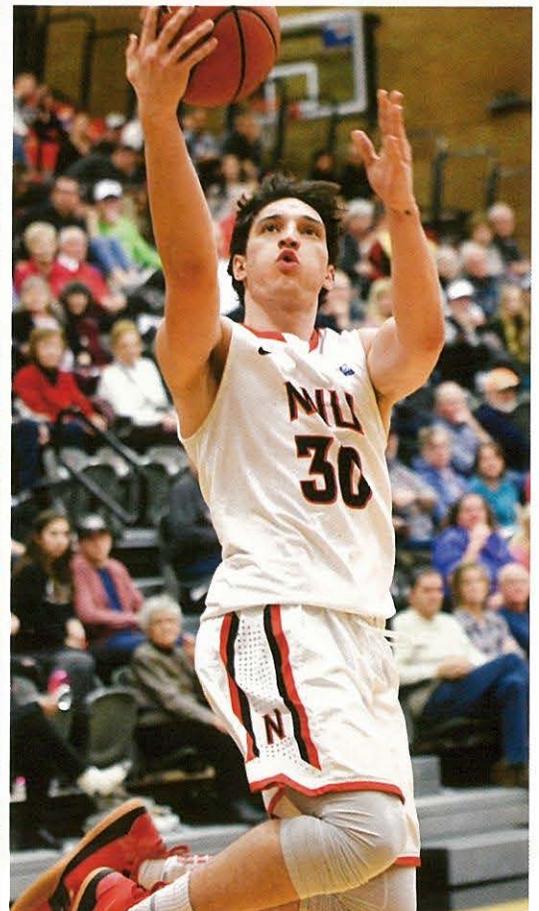

The NNU women's golf team entered the season with high hopes to compete amongst the teams in the GNAC. The team's only senior, Stephanie Miller, leads the team with a season scoring average of 81.1. Up and coming player Taylor Entenman is looking to propel the team forward in the years to come.

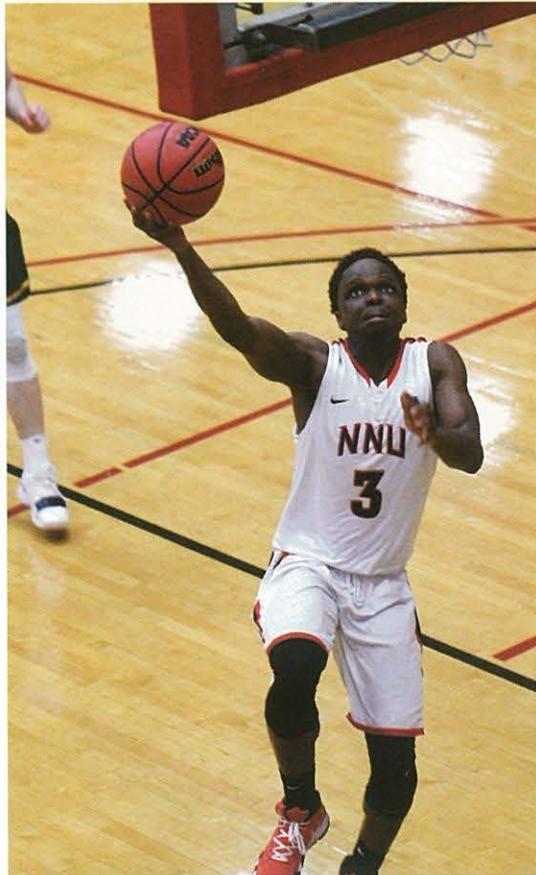

MEN'S BASKETBALL

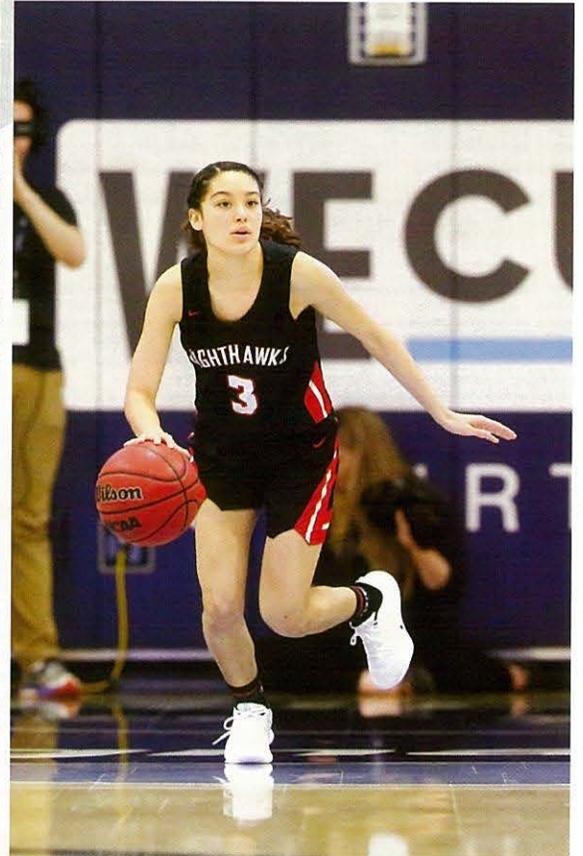

This year was a record-breaking season for our men's basketball team. They sent their three seniors; Obi Megwa, Nikola Prvulj, and Sam Franks off with a season to remember. They were able to rack up 20 wins and only 8 losses for their first 20-win season since 2001. In the midst of those 20 wins, NNU was ranked twice in the Top-25.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

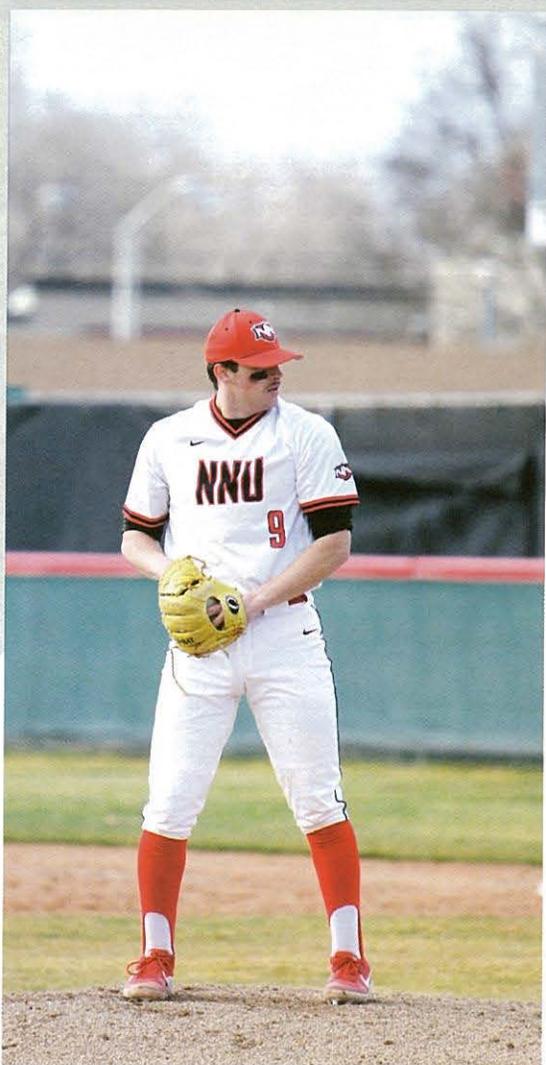

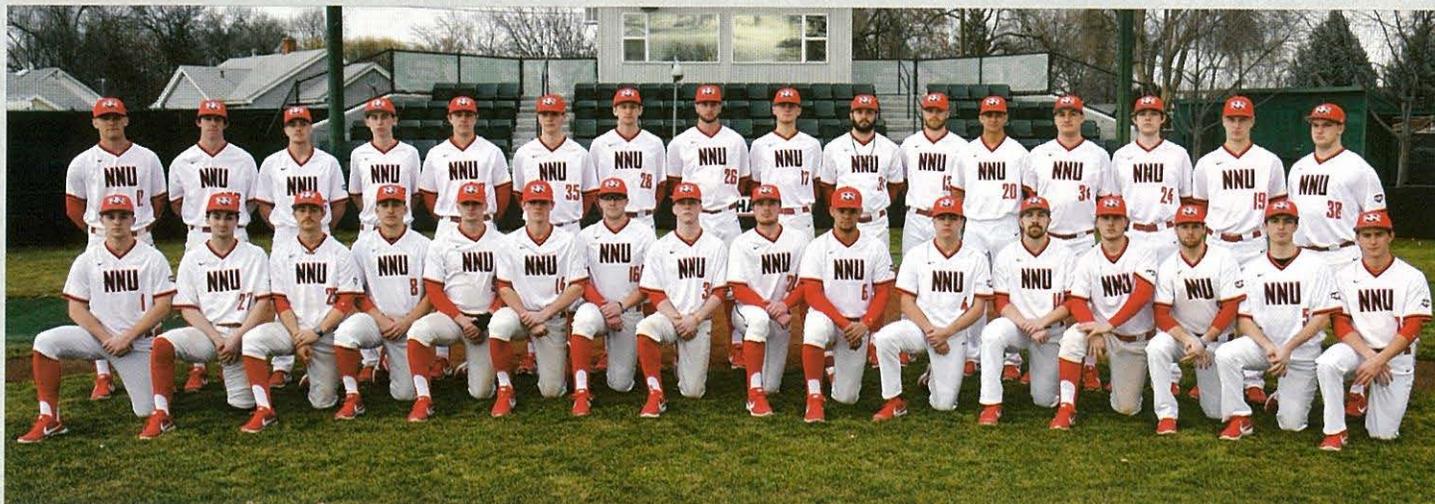

Our women's basketball team continued to rewrite the record books this year. This year's team set the single season team record in points, scoring average, field goals made, field goal percentage, & 3-pt field goals made. On top of those records, the women's team made it to the national tournament ranked 2nd in the West Region and topped the NCAA Top-25 chart during the season. It was a great season to send off seniors Mckenna Walker, Ellie Logan, Danielle Jardine, Carly Parker, Raquel Jardine & Maya Rodgers.

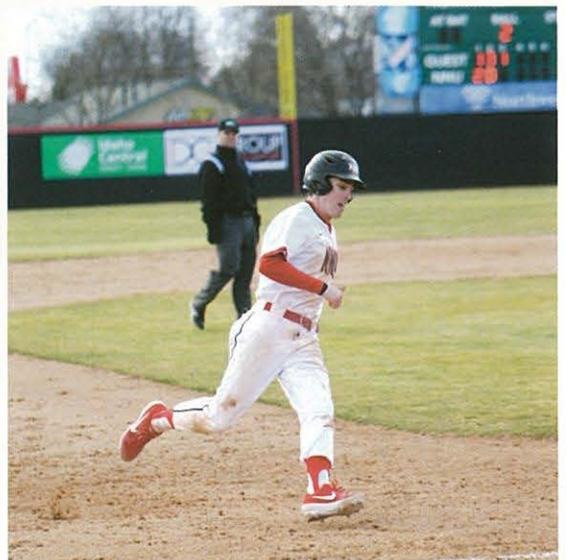

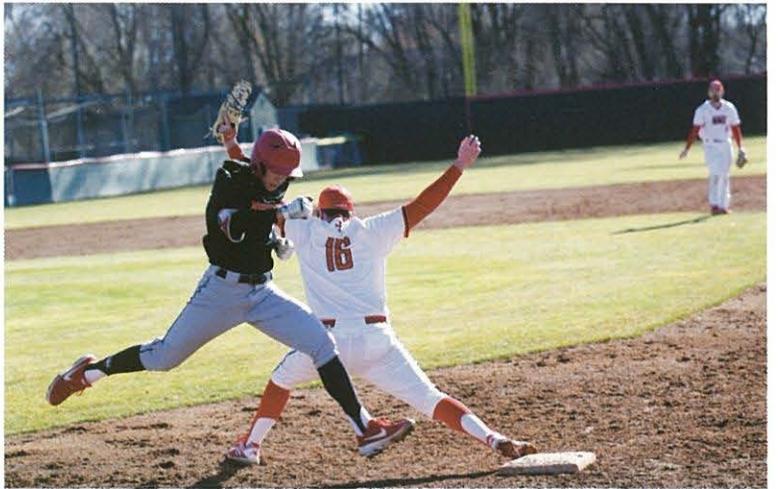

BASEBALL

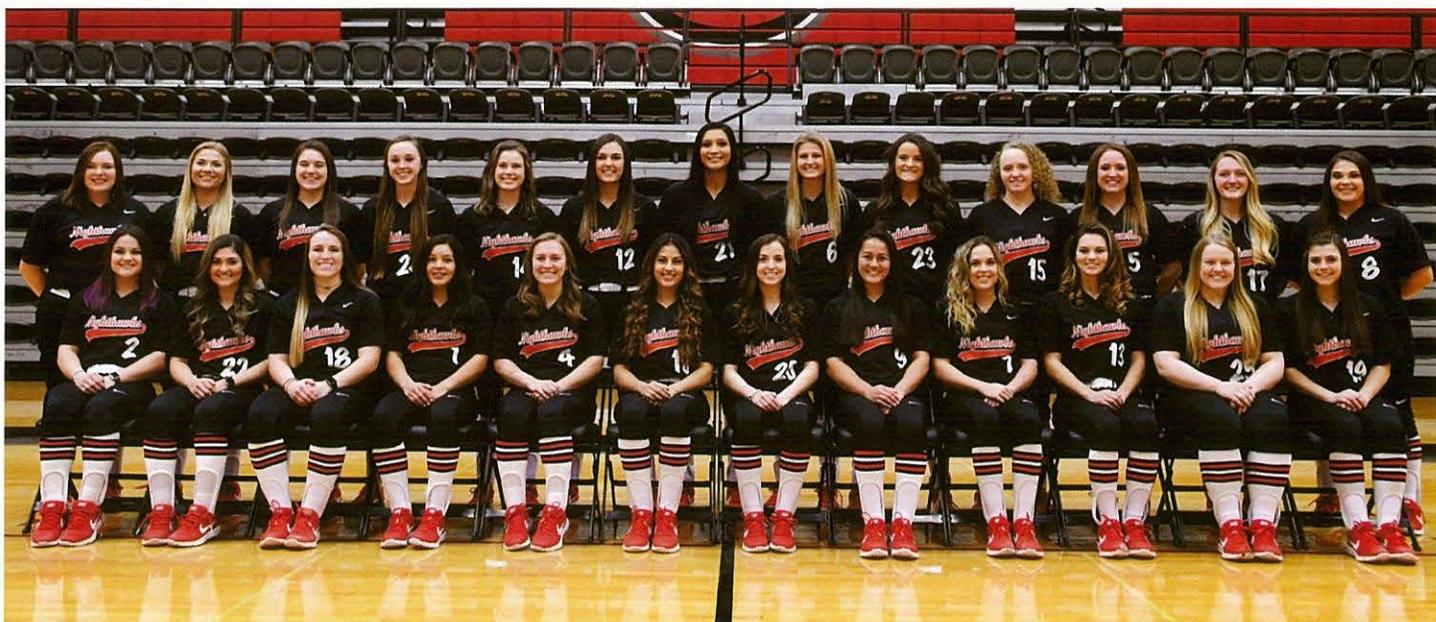

Nighthawk's baseball is looking to have a great season to follow the past two years of high achievement. Leading the team on the diamond, seniors Rocco Ferrari, Michael Hults, Dylan Cure, Ryan Connor, Kyle Redford, Cooper Webster, Bennett Tabaracci, Jalen Fuhriman, Greg Casper, Braeden Dunten, and Jesse Hilyard look to leave their legacy in the already rich history of NNU baseball.

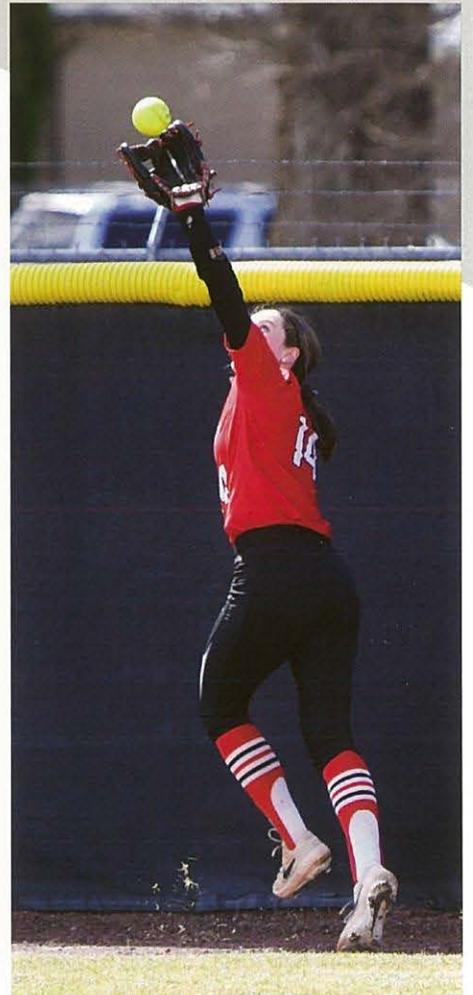

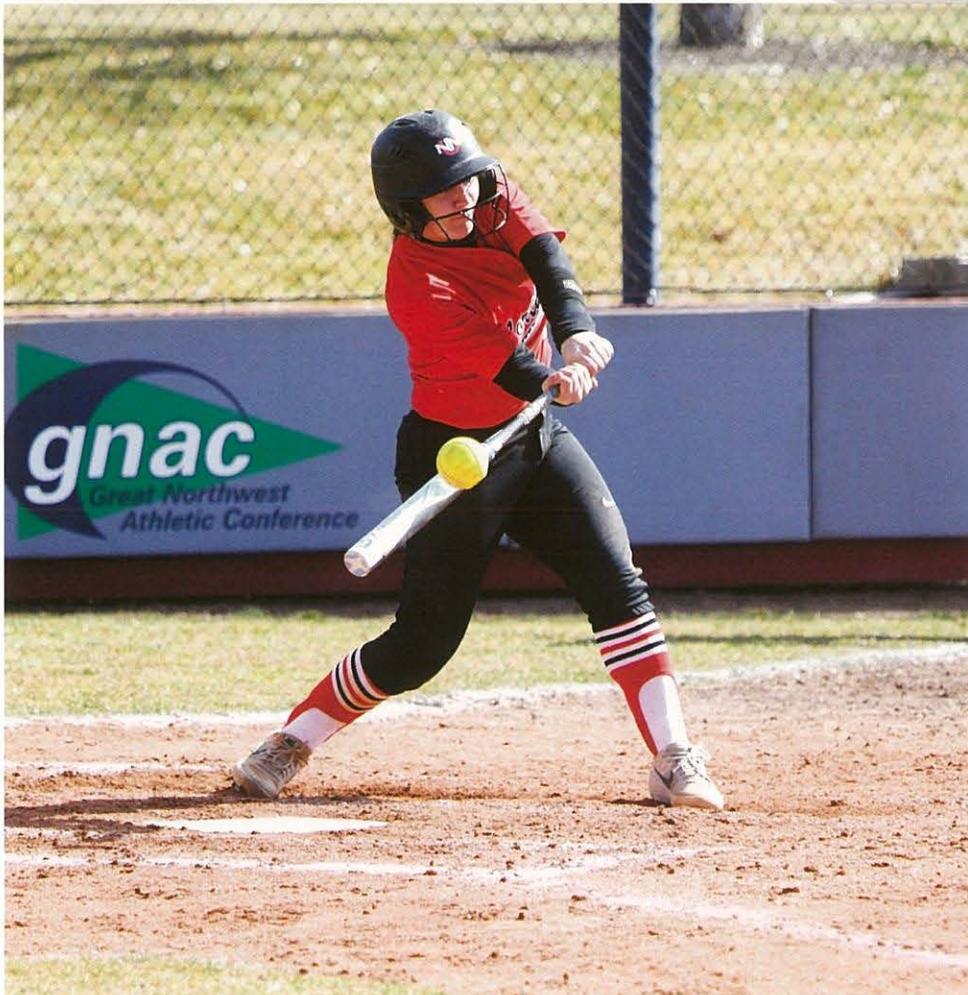

SOFTBALL

Coming off of a record-breaking season last year as they earned the championship trophies for the Conference and the Tournament, the Nighthawks have a hopeful outlook for this year. The feeling in the dugout is that the team is “becoming an elite program” said senior Cassidy Fifield as she reflected on the past season. On the field and joining Cassidy, seniors Lauren Bassett, Lyndzie Parker, Anna Williams, Rylee Thomas, Anna Olsen, Abigail Otto, Kylie Orr, Shelbie Martinez, and Madalyn Smith look to continue to fill up the record books in their last year.

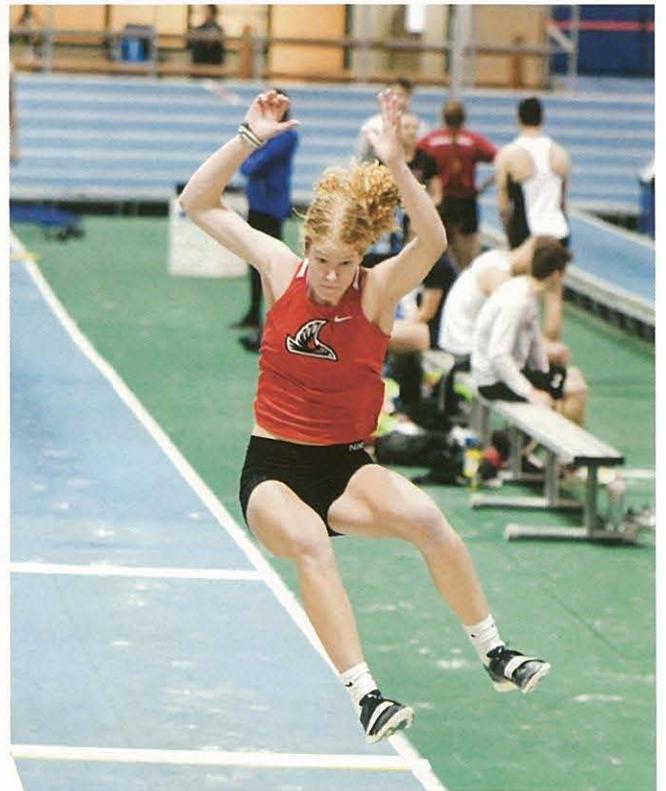

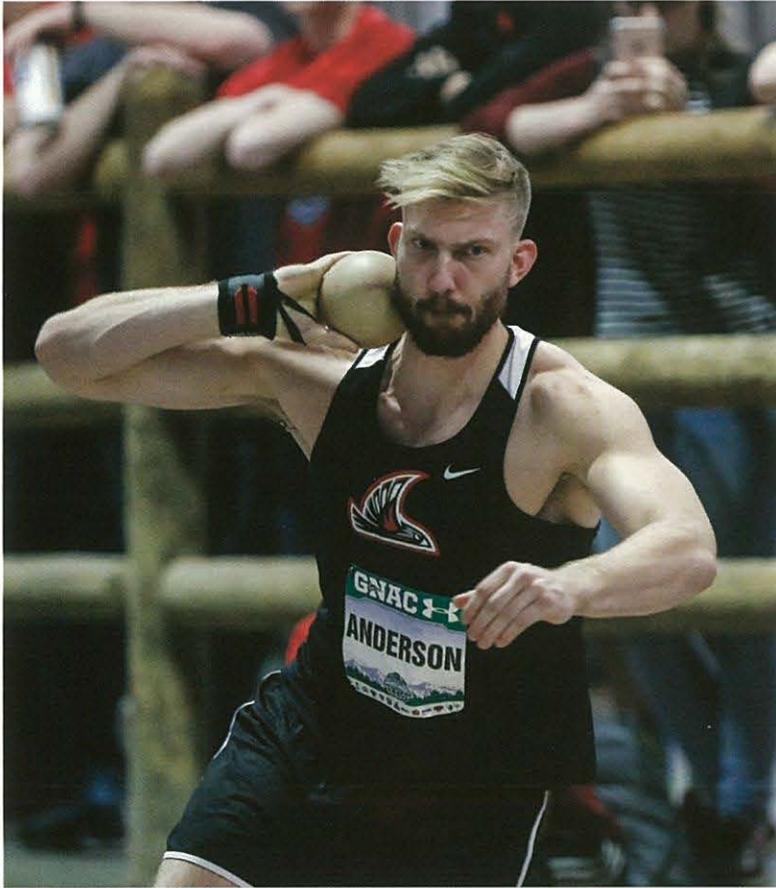

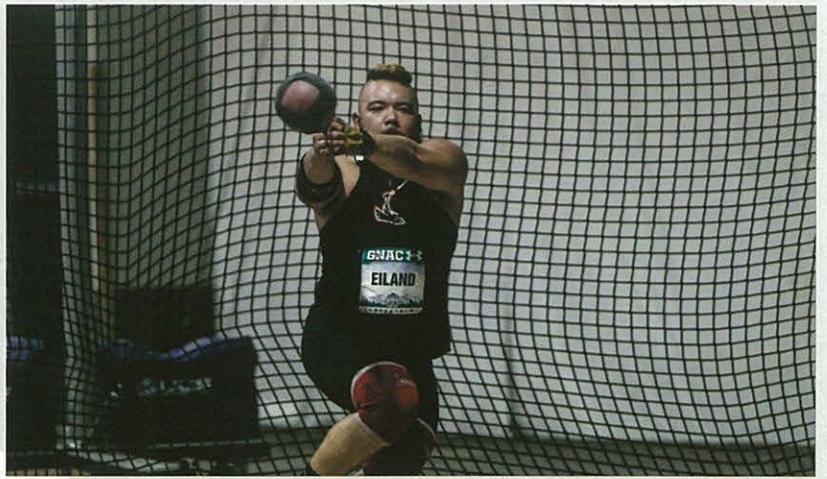

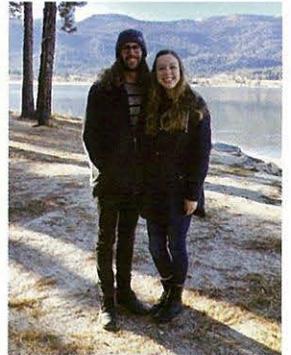

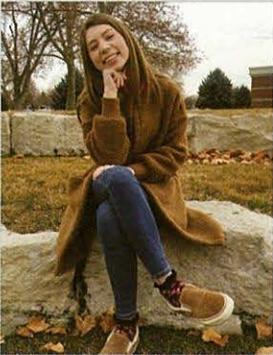

TRACK & FIELD

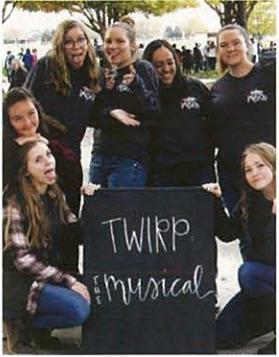

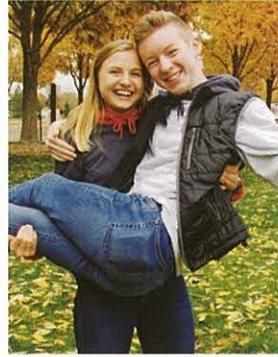

During both the indoor and outdoor season, the NNU Track and Field team excelled under an almost completely new coaching staff by breaking multiple records and establishing themselves in the NNU record books. This group of athletes for NNU Track and Field have made their mark on NNU's program and will be a team that won't be forgotten easily.

THE OASIS STAFF

We would like to thank everyone that was involved in creating the 102nd edition of the Oasis! This includes all designers, photographers, and writers. The writers were Camilla Mowry, Natalie Gerdes, Micah Tranch, Jared Stensgaard, Morgan Fast, Morgan Baxter, Bradley Stiles, McKenna Howard, Brielle MacDonald, Courtney Ritchey, Mikaela Daugherty, Hoku Watanabe, and Justan Honor. We also want to thank NNU Marketing for supplying many of the photos in this book and Ian Rohnert for creating and allowing us to use his “Voyager” font that is displayed on the front cover and throughout the rest of the book.
